UNDERSTANDING CSaR

The Culture, Sports, and Responsibility (CSaR) is a students' wing of Centurion University aimed at providing students with opportunities for overall development beyond study hours. CSaR focuses on promoting cultural activities, sports, and cultivating a sense of responsibility among the student community.

a. Cultural Promotion: CSaR aims to promote cultural diversity and inclusivity within the student community. It organizes various events, such as dance competitions, music festivals, drama performances, and art exhibitions, to encourage students to showcase their talents and appreciate different cultures.

b. Sports and Fitness: CSaR recognizes the importance of physical fitness and sports in students' lives. It organizes sports tournaments, inter-departmental matches, and fitness programs to encourage students to participate actively in sports and maintain a healthy lifestyle.

c. Responsibility and Social Initiatives: CSaR believes in nurturing socially responsible individuals. It conducts workshops, seminars, and awareness campaigns on important social issues, such as environmental conservation, gender equality, and community service. CSaR also encourages students to engage in volunteering activities and contribute to society.

CSaR stands for Culture, Sports, and Responsibility. CSaR focuses on promoting cultural activities, sports, and cultivating a sense of responsibility among the student community.

OBJECTIVES

a. Cultural Enrichment: CSaR aims to enrich the cultural experience of students by promoting diversity and inclusivity. It organizes events and activities that encourage students to explore various art forms, express their talents, and appreciate different cultures.

b. Sports and Wellness: CSaR recognizes the significance of physical fitness and sports in students' lives. It endeavors to provide opportunities for students to engage in sports, participate in tournaments, and prioritize their overall well-being.

c. Social Responsibility: CSaR strives to cultivate a sense of responsibility and awareness among students. It organizes workshops, campaigns, and community service initiatives to address social issues, promote sustainable practices, and encourage students to contribute to society.

d. Skill Development: CSaR aims to enhance students' professional skills and competencies. It organizes workshops, training sessions, and guest lectures to equip students with practical knowledge and empower them for their future careers.

e. Intercollegiate Engagement: CSaR facilitates intercollegiate competitions and events to foster healthy competition, collaboration, and networking opportunities among students from different educational institutions.

f. Personal Growth: CSaR is committed to fostering personal growth and self-confidence among students. It provides a platform for them to explore their interests, develop leadership skills, and enhance their overall personality beyond the confines of their academic curriculum.

g. Well-rounded Education: CSaR emphasizes the importance of a well-rounded education. By offering a range of cultural, sports, and responsible initiatives, it aims to complement students' academic learning with practical experiences that contribute to their holistic development.

ABOUT CSaR GRADE

- Each student must complete a total of 30 hours of CSaR activities during each academic year.
- These 30 hours are divided into 10 hours for Culture, 10 hours for Sports, and 10 hours for Responsibility.

Note:

- Each academic year is from 1st July to 30th June.

ACTIVITY DURATION

Each CSaR activity should have a minimum duration of 1 hour and a maximum duration of 8 hours. Students can choose from a range of activities offered within the Culture, Sports, and Responsibility domains.

Only students who fulfil these requirements, will be considered eligible to pass the academic year.

Recording and Verification

After completing a CSaR activity, it is mandatory for students to record their participation in a CSaR Performance Booklet. This booklet serves as a record of their CSaR activities throughout their academic journey.

Cont...

Once an activity is completed, the student must obtain the signature of the respective Faculty Coordinator.

Passing Eligibility

To be eligible to pass the academic year, students must fulfil 10-hour for Culture, 10 hours for Sports, and 10 hours for Responsibility.

CSaR Grades and Certification: At the end of the Centurion University degree program, the CSaR grade will be reflected in the final Grade Sheet of the student. Additionally, students will receive a CSaR Performance Booklet that lists all the CSR activities they have completed. This booklet can be used by students for their resumes or other purposes to showcase their involvement in CSR initiatives.

Supervision and Verification: Students are responsible for seeking supervision and approval from the Faculty Coordinator for each CSaR activity. Any faculty member can supervise and sign the CSaR Performance Booklet to indicate that the required hours have been completed. This allows flexibility for students to engage with different faculty members and explore a variety of activities.

Annual Sports Meet

Credit Grade for each Academic Year	Grade
30 - 45	C
46 - 60	B
61 - 75	A
76 - 90	E

- Credit refers to the number of hours the student spared.
- For more than 1 year programme the credit will be calculated by taking the average of the credit points of each year.
- The final CSR Grade will be reflected in the final degree Grade Sheet & Certificate

The CSaR wing is led by the Dean of Students' Affairs/Welfare. The Faculty Coordinators work closely with student teams to oversee various clubs and activities related to culture, sports, and responsibility.

ROLE OF FACULTY COORDINATORS

The CSaR (Culture, Sports, and Responsibility) wing plays a vital role in promoting extracurricular activities and holistic development among students. .

Street Play by the students

The CSaR wing is led by the Dean of Students' Affairs/Welfare.

CSaR Coordinator: Under the supervision of the Dean of Students' Affairs/Welfare, a dedicated Faculty Coordinator is appointed to oversee the CSaR wing. This coordinator serves as the point of contact and provides guidance and support to the Convener for Culture, Sports, and Responsibility.

Cultural Convener: The Cultural Convener, who is a faculty member, focuses on promoting cultural activities within the CSaR wing. They oversee clubs such as music, dance, drama, art, and other cultural organizations. The Cultural Convener works closely with the respective Faculty Coordinators assigned to each club.

Sports Convener: The Sports Convener, also a faculty member, is responsible for promoting sports and physical activities within the CSaR wing. They oversee clubs related to various sports disciplines such as football, basketball, cricket, tennis, and more. The Sports Convener collaborates with the respective Faculty Coordinators assigned to each sports club.

Responsibility Convener: The Responsibility Convener, a faculty member, focuses on promoting responsible and ethical initiatives within the CSaR wing. They oversee clubs related to social service, environmental awareness, and community engagement. The Responsibility Convener collaborates with the respective Faculty Coordinators assigned to each responsibility club. NCC, NSS and YRC works under Responsibility wing of CSaR.

Faculty Coordinators for Clubs: Under each domain (Culture, Sports, Responsibility), there are several clubs, each led by a Faculty Coordinator. For instance, under the Culture domain, there may be clubs like music club, dance club, drama club, etc. Each club has its own Faculty Coordinator who provides guidance and support to the student Club Coordinators.

Student Club Coordinators: Club Coordinators (students) are appointed to lead the members of each club. They work closely with the respective Faculty Coordinator and are responsible for organizing club activities, managing club resources, and ensuring the smooth functioning of the club.

Faculty Coordinators' Responsibilities include:

- Assisting Club Coordinators in planning and organizing club activities.
- Providing guidance in club management, event planning, and execution.
- Encouraging and promoting student participation in club activities.

FACULTY COORDINATORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The Faculty Coordinators play a crucial role in the CSaR wing by providing mentorship, guidance, and support to the Club Coordinators and their respective clubs.

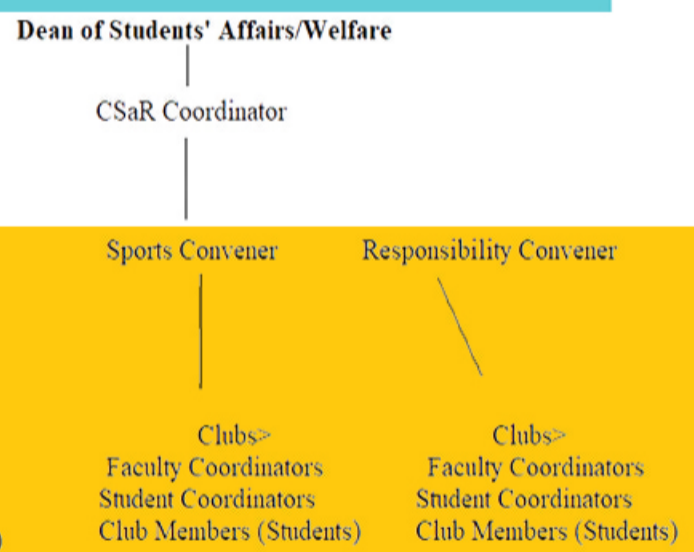

REPORTING

The Faculty Coordinators collaborate with the CSaR Coordinator, Convener, and other Faculty Coordinators to ensure effective coordination among different domains. They regularly report to the CSaR Coordinator about the progress, challenges, and achievements of the clubs under their supervision.

- Facilitating collaborations and partnerships with other clubs, departments, or external organizations.

- Ensuring compliance with safety regulations and university policies.
- Providing feedback and evaluation to enhance the club's performance.
- Addressing any issues or concerns raised by Club Coordinators or club members.
- Monitoring the progress and achievements of each club under their domain.

Faculty Coordinators in the CSaR wing play a vital role in promoting extracurricular activities and providing guidance and support to student clubs. Their efforts contribute to the holistic development of students by fostering cultural, sports, and responsible initiatives.

Centurion University's CSaR program provides a robust framework for student engagement and personal growth.

Through club participation, performance evaluation, and selection for the CSaR core team, students are empowered to become active contributors to the university community.

This report will highlight the key features of CSaR infrastructure, including the Students' Activity Center which has facilities like various clubs, library, NSS and NCC offices, podcast studio, magazine office, and the overall aesthetic appeal of the area.

CLUBS AT STUDENTS' ACTIVITY CENTER

CSaR hosts numerous clubs catering to diverse interests such as arts, music, dance, drama, literature, and sports. These clubs organize events, workshops, and competitions to encourage student participation and foster creativity. The clubs are well decorated.

CSaR LIBRARY

The CSaR library is a valuable resource for students, offering a wide range of books, periodicals, and digital resources related to arts, culture, and various story books. It serves as a quiet study space and a source of inspiration for students.

PODCAST STUDIO

The dedicated podcast studio within CSaR provides students with a platform to produce and broadcast audio content related to culture, art, and other relevant topics. It encourages students to express their ideas and engage with a wider audience.

Basketball Ground

Lawn Tennis Ground

The presence of sports facilities such as lawn tennis, basketball, and volleyball grounds indicates a focus on outdoor sports. Additionally, the multipurpose football-cricket ground suggests that students have the opportunity to engage in popular team sports. The availability of indoor games facilities is also beneficial for students who prefer indoor sports or recreational activities.

The variety of sports facilities available at Centurion University provides students with opportunities to engage in a wide range of sports and physical activities, promoting a well-rounded educational experience.

SPORTS INFRASTRUCTURE

a holistic approach to education by encouraging physical fitness and well-being

The presence of a gym suggests that students have access to fitness equipment and can engage in various exercises to stay active and maintain their physical well-being.

The inclusion of a swimming pool is a great addition as it provides students with an opportunity to participate in swimming activities.

MONTHLY CSaR MAGAZINE: CHANDRABHAGA

One of the most remarkable initiatives of CSaR is the monthly magazine 'Chandrabhaga.' This literary masterpiece is a platform that encapsulates a diverse range of themes, featuring captivating stories, non-fiction articles, thought-provoking poetry, scientific explorations, exhilarating sports coverage, and timely news updates.

CHANDRABHAGA WEBSITE

In addition to the print version, 'Chandrabhaga' magazine offers an online presence through its website, www.chandrabhaga.in. This digital platform extends the reach of the magazine, allowing readers from around the world to access its captivating content.

CRAFTS AND TRADITION

The park's focus on pottery, organic farming, handloom, and natural dyeing highlights the importance of traditional crafts and environmentally friendly practices. It also showcases various Rural Technologies

TRAINING PROGRAMME

The training programs offered at the Rural Technology Park provide valuable skills and knowledge to individuals interested in these areas. Pottery, for example, preserves a traditional art form while also offering economic opportunities for local communities.

RURAL TECHNOLOGY PARK

CSaR Wing's Rural Technology Park at Centurion University is a valuable platform for learning, innovation, and promoting responsible practices in rural areas. It is an inspiring example of student-driven initiatives that have a positive impact on society.

The establishment of a Rural Technology Park by the students is commendable and shows their dedication to promoting rural development and sustainability. The park's focus on pottery, organic farming, handloom, and natural dyeing highlights the importance of traditional crafts and environmentally friendly practices.

The showcasing of different rural technologies at the park is an excellent way to raise awareness and promote the adoption of innovative solutions in rural areas.

CENTURION COFFEE CONNECT (CCC)
