About the session:

The Webinar was conducted on 7th January 2021 online, organized by centurion women entrepreneurship cell, Centurion University, Gram Tarang, Center for Innovators and Entrepreneurs in partnership with Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry (FICCI) the session started at 4pm, Vice Chancellor and head of CWEC Dr. Supriya Pattnaik inaugurated the session with her welcome words towards the participants and the speakers. She introduces the speaker to the participants and then she handed over the session to our first speaker, Mr. Sibapanda Bhanja started the session with a small introduction about the fund raising procedure for procedures and states the process has a lot of challenges and needs a lot of teamwork, preparations and great storytelling skills to overcome them. The success for a fund raising exercise also depends upon timing - market sentiments and sector outlook can play as big a role as your business credentials. Mr. Sibananda Bhanja concluded the session with his remarks on the topic and then the session was handed over to Dr. Anupam Gayen, he talks about the challenges faced by the MSMEs and startups and the importance of raising funds for startups.

Objective:

- To create awareness on the importance of fundraising and challenges faced by the startups
- To discuss the procedure; Monthly cash flow, banking Transactions, Collateral and Govt. Schemes.

The session was concluded by Prof. Supriya Pattnaik and the speakers reviewed the session on the procedure of the MSMEs fundraising and the solution to the problems faced in the process. The was then concluded with a vote of thanks to all the participants and the speakers.
