ABOUT THE SESSION:

The Inaugural ceremony of the seminar started with a welcome address by Vedantika and Gitika. The seminar was graced by Ms. Rasmita Toppo, Resource Person, Sri Sasanka Lenka, Resource Person, Dr. Anita Patra, Registrar, CUTM, Dr. M. Devender Reddy, Dean Academic, MSSSoA, Prof. A Zaman, Professor Emeritus and Dr. Prajna Pani, Professor of English.

Ms. Rasmita Toppo, Scientist in Horticulture at KVK, R Udayagiri addressed the students mainly about the roles and responsibilities of Krishi Vigyan Kendra and its benefits of doubling the farmer's income. Sri Sasanka Lenka, Senior Scientist and Head Extension, Krishi Vigyan Kendra, delivered a talk on the current and future constraints and challenges in the field of Agriculture. He discussed different agricultural lands and their uses. He highlighted different schemes of government and presented how these schemes are helpful for doubling the income of the farmers. Prof. Devender Reddy, Prof. Dr. Zaman & Dr. Anita Patra highlighted the main issues and encouraged students to do rigorous research and extension work in agriculture. They urged the students to develop the current status of Indian Agriculture and on the use of data analytics in the agriculture sector.

OBJECTIVES: The objective of the Seminar was to create awareness among the students and find some solutions for the agricultural problems that have been faced for a long. It was an enriching experience for the students where they got equipped with the current scenario of Indian agriculture and its perspectives.

OUTCOME: The Resource Persons were felicitated by Dr. Prajna Pani, Professor of English. The Inaugural ceremony culminated with a vote of thanks by Dominic Pavan. The post-lunch session started with technical sessions. Student participation was impressive. 210 students presented their ideas in parallel sessions. Different panel members were allotted to evaluate the presentations of the students. After completion of all the presentations, best 6 presenters from different sections were rewarded with a trophy and a certificate of achievement.
