About the webinar

Department of English & IQAC, CUTM, Paralakhemundi organized a Webinar on English for Employability held on 08 Apr, 2022 at 2:30 pm. The webinar was conducted through zoom. The corporate world is in a dire need of human resources equipped with hard skills as well as soft skills. Soft skills are a must for fine tuning the personality and the doors of employment are always open for the students with good language proficiency and soft skills. Dr. Vaibhav Sabnis was assigned to deliver his talk on 'English Language allied skills for employability'. He said that apart from the corporate sector there are bright chances of job opportunities in the translation industry as English is a widely spoken language around the world. He shed light on the use of language for media purposes and underlined the better employability prospectus in the field of journalism. About 56 participants were tagged to the event. The session further continued on;

1. Workplace communication culture:

1.1. The extent of multi-nationalism within the company and the prevalence of English or Arabic as the medium of communication.

1.2. Communication modes and the main channels of communication e.g. email, face-to-face, memos, meetings.

2. Workplace communication challenges:

2.1. What issues arise around the employment of graduates or non-graduates into the company? For example, a lack of work readiness or the criticality of certain skills.
