Chandrabhaga Poetry Festival, an initiative taken by a group of poets and poetry lovers is a unique festival to celebrate poetry and poetic traditions. The Poetry Festival is conceived as an annual forum for sharing poetry from different parts of India and the world. Like the past two years, the festival will be held beside the river Chandrabhaga at the internationally renowned Sun Temple, Konark, on the shores of the Bay of Bengal, on 13-14th January 2018.

The two-day festival will offer an opportunity to both poets and admirers of poetry to interact with one another in an intimate setting in the serene atmosphere of Konark. In the context of Mr. Bob Dylan being awarded the Nobel prize for literature, The theme for this year's Chandrabhaga poetry festival is Poetry of Resistance.
