About the resource person

Dr. Prajna Pani works as an Associate Professor of English in the Department of English, Centurion University of Technology and Management. She has completed PhD in English (English Language Education). Her research areas include andragogy and ESP (English for Specific Purposes).

About the workshop:

The International English Language Testing System, is an international standardized test of English language proficiency for non-native English language speakers. It is jointly managed by the British Council, IDP: IELTS Australia and Cambridge Assessment English, and was established in 1989. In this workshop participants learned how to develop their English language.

Objective of the workshop

IELTS is developed to provide a fair and accurate assessment of English language proficiency. Test questions are developed by language specialists from Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the UK and the USA. The test covers four sections: Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking.

Outcome of the workshop

- Improve the English language skill
- Receive a test report that is recognised and accepted by thousands of institutions around the world, including companies, universities, professional bodies, and government agencies.
