The School of Fisheries (SOF), CUTM, Paralakhemundi campus, conducted ICAR-NTA-JRF coaching for 3rd and 4th final year students from January 26th to August 31st, 2021, under the banner of "Guidance for competitive examinations." The event's facilitator, Dr. Sambid Swain, gave a comprehensive overview of the fishery JRF question and answer details, which was followed by a group discussion. Our department's specialised faculty members also discussed concerns relevant to several areas of fisheries science. The following topics will be covered by an expert faculty member: Aquaculture, Fisheries Resource Management, Fish Environment Management, Fish Processing Technology, Fish Engineering & Technology, Fish Nutrition & Feed Technology, Fish Physiology & Biochemistry, Aquatic Animal Health Management, Aquatic Environment Management, Fish Genetics/ Breeding / Biotechnology, Fisheries Extension, Fisheries Economics & Statistics etc. This ICAR-NTA-JRF Coaching benefited more than 35 students. Periodic tutoring will be provided to students in light of their interest in these competitive tests.
