A REPORT ON LEARNWISE TRAINING PROGRAMME 11 December 2018

LEARNWISE was introduced on 11 December 2018. It is a digital learning platform led by Wadhvani Foundation and has been adopted by Centurion University of Technology and Management. It is a mobile friendly cloud-based platform, having the flexibility to meet the needs of the audience and provide education anywhere at any time. This digitized learning platform is meant for students to connect, learn, organize and build-up their skills competency from any part of the world. The design of this digital platform is user friendly.

Total 236 students participated in the programme. The main purpose was to improve the employability skills of the students through improved trainee quality enabled by transformational e-Content and as well as enhanced teacher quality through structured faculty development programs. Amiya Singh, Dean was the SPOC of the programme.

The core communication module of the Employability Skills Training module covered communication basics, speaking such as greeting and introduction, writing, non-verbal communication, active listening, negotiation-understanding perspectives, self-presentation-making a great first impression, excelling in interviews, communication workplace, group discussions, and problem-solving. The anytime anywhere mode of learning helped the students with their soft skills.
