

The workshop was attended by 432 participants who were interested in improving their language proficiency. The participants were from diverse backgrounds, including students, professionals, and language enthusiasts. The main objective of the workshop was to enhance the language proficiency of the participants through skill-building activities. The workshop aimed to improve the participants' reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills, and to provide them with strategies to continue developing their language proficiency independently. The final session was on listening skills, and it included activities such as listening for gist, listening for details, and note-taking.

Glimpses from the Workshop, 11.2.2020

Conclusion

In conclusion, the language proficiency workshop was successful in enhancing the language proficiency of the participants. The workshop provided the participants with various strategies to improve their reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills, and it encouraged them to continue developing their language proficiency independently. The workshop was beneficial for the participants, and it highlighted the importance of language proficiency in social, economic, and cultural development.

Ajit Kumar Pradhan

CONVENOR

Anita Patra

Registrar

