A Report on Art and Craft of Writing

DATE-3rd April, 2022

About the Webinar

Writing is not only an essential jobs skill of the 21st century but is a strong parameter of our learning and intellect. We not only create a positive impression about ourselves but develop credibility of a life time. Writing is our ability to reflect, and refine our thoughts and ideas and present that to others in a clear and convincing manner. To write well requires adequate understanding and trainings so that one can know the basic rules of writing, to be able to know his/her own mistakes and remove them before sharing with readers.

So, the webinar on The Art and Craft of Writing will help you to be a better writer that ultimately will open new doors of opportunities for you.

Dr. Anubha Ray during webinar

A webinar was organised on The Art and Craft of Writing on 3rd April 2022. The webinar was organized around the themes like Let's Analyse the paragraph! Is it Better? Why? Find the difference? What it Lacked! (No continuity, No focus, No coherence, No unity, No Planning,) what a well-organized paragraph looks like, how to control the topic sentence, writing strategies such as brain storming, free writing, ask like a journalist (Wh-Qs), Crafting a Paragraph. The resource person enlightened the audience with the various approaches to writing.

There were four hundred thirty participants in the webinar. The key takeaways are: Change what you write, Change how you write, Know how you are assessed, Be careful of what you produce, Integrate technology.

The event concluded with a thank you note to the participants,

Dr. Prajna Pani, Coordinator of the event, the Department of English, and Dr. Anubha Ray, the Resource Person of the webinar.
