

Rangoli competition on Diwali, Balangir
Date: 6th November, 2018

Students from Balangir at CUTM enthusiastically participated in the Rangoli Competition that was held on November 6, 2018, in honour of Diwali. The contest's subject was "Color the Floor," which was celebrated. The CSR coordinator, Mrs. Pativa Satpathy, stated: "By holding such activities, students are exposed to our Indian culture. They can develop their imaginative, artistic, and creative skills all at once. The various cultures, arts, and customs in our nation are brought together via these events in a spirit of peace and unity. The female students took an active part in this competition and created lovely rangoli. The students received prizes from Mrs. Namita Panda, an assistant professor in the department of botany. Gratitude was expressed by Mrs. Pativa Satpathy for the work the student-teachers put in to make the celebrations so memorable and exciting.
