

Dance Competition on Republic Day celebration, Balangir
Date: 26th January, 2019

For the students of CUTM, Balagir, a dancing competition was organised on January 26, 2019, from 3 to 5 p.m. The main dignitaries for this event were Dr. Bhairaba Kumar Majhi, assistant professor and head of the Mathematics department, and Dr. Pratibha Rani Deep, assistant professor of the department of Botany. Dr. Bhairaba Kumar Majhi gave the audience an introduction to the programme. The competition got underway with a lot of zeal and vigour. Each of the 13 performers displayed a distinctive dance on a different song. The students' faultless and seamless performances mesmerized the audience. For their enthralling performance, they won accolades. Assistant professors from various departments served as the competition's judges. The students gracefully displayed their greatest moves as they went centre stage and displayed their unique talent. The student took part in this competition developed their awareness and proficiency in a variety of activities, such as creatively sequencing and expressing a wide range of concepts through a variety of movements. The prize was given to the competition winner by the university registrar. The celebration was concluded with a motivational speech from Mrs. Prativa Satpathy, the CSR coordinator, who also gave the vote of gratitude.
