

Speech Debate Competition on Independence Day Paralakhemundi

Date: 15th August 2018

On August 15, 2018, Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Paralakhemundi, Odisha, commemorated Independence Day with great zeal and patriotic fervor. On this important occasion, honorable vice chancellor Dr. Supriya Pattnaik, honorable registrar Dr. Anita Patra, and honorable dean delivered speeches Dr. S.P Nanda.

On this memorable occasion, the programme began with the honorable registrar, Dr. Anita Patra, raising the flag. In his remarks, the Hon. Registrar urged the audience to embrace their sense of nationalism, be proud to be Indians, and carry out their duties with care. She also underlined the importance of young people today as a nation's fundamental resource. Following that, an interschool speech and debate competition was conducted. The competition attracted active participation from students from several schools. Mr. The competition was hosted by Mr. Sushant Kumar Pattnaik. He chose the participants and decided how the debate would proceed. Both proponents and opponents of the motion made arguments. The discussion was well received by the audience. The prize distribution was carried out by the school deans after the competition.
