

Debate Competition on Gandhi Jayanti, Rayagada
Date: 2nd October 2018

The topic of the discussion in a debating tournament was "Role of Gandhi in India's freedom movement is overstated." This event drew a sizable contingent of students. Dr Chandra Sekhar Patro, Professor and Associate Professor Dr Gopal Krishna Padhy, Dept. of Pharmacy served as the judges. The address was given on this day with a tremendous passion to honour the nation's founding father and to recall his valiant actions throughout the country's struggle for independence from British domination. There were discussions about many facets of his life, including his upbringing, modest way of life, and lofty ideas. The Satyagraha movement for India's independence was launched by him as a leader of truth and nonviolence. He not only invented a special nonviolent strategy to free India from British domination, but he also demonstrated to the rest of the world that freedom can be attained without violence. His favourite song, "Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram, Patit Pavan Sita Ram," was sung to honour Gandhiji as the speech came to a close. Mr Deepankar Rath, the CSR coordinator, gave a motivational address to finish the occasion and presented the vote of thanks.
