

Debate competition on Independence Day, Bhubaneswar

Date:09th August, 2021

The Bhubaneswar campus hosted a debate competition on August 09, 2021, Independence Day, with the theme of "Is the political system in India worthwhile after independence?" A big number of students attended this event. The argument tournament was judged by Dr. Aswini Kumar Rath and Dr. Shanatanu Bhattacharya, professors in the Department of Botany. The judges gave speeches and opened an exhibition about our freedom heroes and our freedom struggle. Everyone was filled with a sense of pride and patriotism. On the notice board images of our great leaders and liberation warriors were pasted. Following that, students from several departments and schools competed in the debate. Students engaged in passionate discussion on all sides of the issue. Prizes were awarded to the winners. Chocolates and candies were given out to everyone. The National Anthem was sung to close the program, and Dr. S. K. Swain, the CSaR in charge, gave a vote of appreciation.
