Public Interaction Program

Work relationships are incredibly important to employee well-being. It's about more than just "getting along" with a co-worker. As humans, we crave contact and connection with other people. Unfortunately, for many employees, work can be a very lonely place. And while you're probably familiar with the phrase, "I'm here to work, not to make friends," it's important for employers to understand just how important social connections in the workplace really are.

Full-time employees spend the majority of their time at the office. This is why work relationships are so important to employee well-being. These relationships can either positively or negatively affect an employee's stress levels, productivity and general feelings of happiness. These factors not only affect an employee's work performance, but it affects employee health too.

Social psychologists have been studying the human need of belonging for many years. It's been found that feeling a sense of belonging is an important intrinsic motivator. Abraham Maslow's hierarchy of needs includes a sense of belonging as a major need that motivates human behavior – just like food, shelter and safety

Report on New Student Reporting Management

Date: 19-07-2021

Resource Person: Mr. Sandipan Pine

No. of Participation: 14

About the session:

A student orientation program plays an important role in a student's transition to university life. Orientation programs are aimed at familiarizing the students with an unknown campus environment, its faculties, and infrastructure. It enables them to make an essential connection with studies and develop networks among other peers. "Where will be my classroom? What will be my majors, what is the course structure?"

The student orientation work is very important and needs to be planned properly and organized well. A webinar was conducted on 03-07-2020 for the first batch of students arriving and the plan and schedule for the first batch was prepared. The responsibilities were divided into different departments.

The three basic goals of the program;

- Introducing students to their college life
- Incorporating them into the university environment
- Giving the opportunity to the university members and faculties to get connected to the new batch
- Registration and Documentation procedures of all the students to be carried out

At the beginning of the first year, students need to be made acquainted with their surroundings on the campus. This includes introductory sessions, giving them an overview of university life; the rules and regulations mandated for each student in a particular college/ faculty. It is an essential period at the beginning of the college session, which allows the students to get settled in their new environment.

About the session

The three financial reports that we have discussed in previous chapters—the Profit and Loss (P&L) Statement, the Balance Sheet, and the Statement of Cash Flow—are used by both management and outside parties in evaluating hotel operations. We will now talk about two types of internal financial and management reports that hotel managers use: • One report summarizes and presents the operating results for the previous day or week. • The second report forecasts or schedules operations and functions for the next day or next week.

Objectives

1. To learn about internal hotel management reports.
2. To understand and be able to use Daily Revenue Reports.
3. To understand and be able to use revenue forecasting reports.
4. To understand and be able to use labor productivity reports.
5. To understand the relationship between revenue changes and profit changes

Outcome

It is extremely important to understand the concepts of incremental revenues and the expected impact that changes in revenue will have on retention or flow through to profits. These terms describe the guidelines set for managers to assist them in controlling expenses and maintaining expected productivity. Because some expenses are fixed, there should be no increase in them if revenues increase. That will have a positive effect on profitability. Likewise, there is no decrease in fixed expenses if revenues decline. This will have a negative effect on profitability. All department managers are expected to manage their variable expenses whether revenues increase or decrease.

Workshop on Accounts Maintenance

Date: 13-08-2021

Resource Person: A. Avinash

No. of Participants: 14

About the resource person

A.Avinash working as Assistant Professor, Dept of CSE, Centurion University of Technology and Management, Andhra Pradesh . Interested to work on Machine learning, Natural Language Processing, Problem Solving Methodologies , and Chat Bot.

About the programmed and objective

It is generally seen that there is confusion among taxpayers about maintenance of books of accounts under Income Tax Act like who is required compulsorily to maintain the books of accounts and for how many years one has to keep his books of accounts.

Objectives

- To familiarize with the basic conceptual framework of Financial Accounting i.e., from recording of transactions for Understanding and Interpreting of Financial Statements.
- To provide the knowledge to the audience about financial statements and principles underlying them and to develop their skills in reading Annual Reports.
- To equip audience with the skills required to understand cost statements/records and management accounting.

Outcome:

Develop an awareness and understanding of the accounting process and fundamental accounting principles that underpin the development of financial statements (e.g. accrual accounting vs. cash accounting, definition, recognition, measurement and disclosure of assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses; inventory valuation methods and methods of depreciation).

Understand and interpret the nature and role of the principal financial statements (i.e., the Income Statement, the Statement of Financial Position, and the Statement of Cash Flows). Understand and apply cost concepts and management accounting to analyse common business management decisions such as pricing a product and services.

The employment issues for information technology (IT) professionals are sources of considerable debate. While the economy may be on its way to the recovery, many firms still struggle to contain costs. IT has especially been impacted by the tidal waves of changes in the economy.

There are many applications for natural language processing, including business applications. Natural language processing (NLP) is a set of artificial intelligence techniques that enable computers to recognize and understand human language. It helps make computers more easily accessible for humans. Natural language processing uses computer science and computational linguistics to bridge the gap between human communication and computer comprehension. It does this by analyzing large amounts of textual data rapidly and understanding the meaning behind the command. It enables computers to comprehend nuanced human concepts such as intent, sentiment, and emotion. It is similar to cognitive computing in that it aims to create more natural interactions between computers and humans

Objective

- To understand the uses of NLP and its uses in applications
- To help computers communicate with humans in their own language and scale other language-related tasks.
- To read, understand, and decode human words in a valuable manner. Most of the NLP techniques depend on machine learning to obtain meaning from human languages.

Outcome: The session broadens the knowledge of the faculties and students on Natural language processing, Augmented Reality, and Virtual Reality and their uses in the application. One such example discussed in the session was about the Writing tools, including Grammarly, WhiteSmoke, and ProWritingAid, which rely on the use of NLP to correct grammatical and spelling errors. Grammarly primarily focuses on a narrow application of artificial intelligence NLP for grammar assistance.

Asst. Prof. Dept. of CSE

Centurion University of Technology and Management

No. of Participants: 73

The Interactive Website Design digital badge program presents a wealth of technologies to aspiring web developers interested in creating and maintaining interactive websites. Popular web design techniques are covered using core web programming languages such as HTML, CSS, and JavaScript; along with an introduction to front-end website frameworks. The program concludes with a self-paced portfolio workshop to showcase and market your skills.

Learn how to create and maintain a basic website using current tools and programming languages. The Web Maintenance and Design digital badge program is geared for people who want to create and maintain a website, but are not interested in a career in web development. You do not need prior knowledge of computer programming to design and maintain web pages.

The basic principle of Smart classroom solution revolves around the idea of improving the skill and understanding level of students. Technology plays a vital role in achieving students' learning goals. Utilizing technology in a learning environment helps to maximize their attention and engagement which results in the number of academic records. Smart classroom solution is helpful for both teachers as well as students

It is a modern, innovative and interactive teaching and learning environment that has the available technological equipment to enhance the students' engagements. Consequently, success depends upon creating, bringing, learning and understanding new technologies. Smart Classrooms are technology enhanced classrooms that foster opportunities for teaching and learning by integrating learning technology, such as computers, e-learning software, audience response system, assistive listening devices, networking, and audio/visual capabilities.

Report of Workshop on Assessment & Accreditation

Date: 20-11-2021

Resource Person

Prof. Anita Patra, Registrar, CUTM

No. of Participants: 31

Resource Person

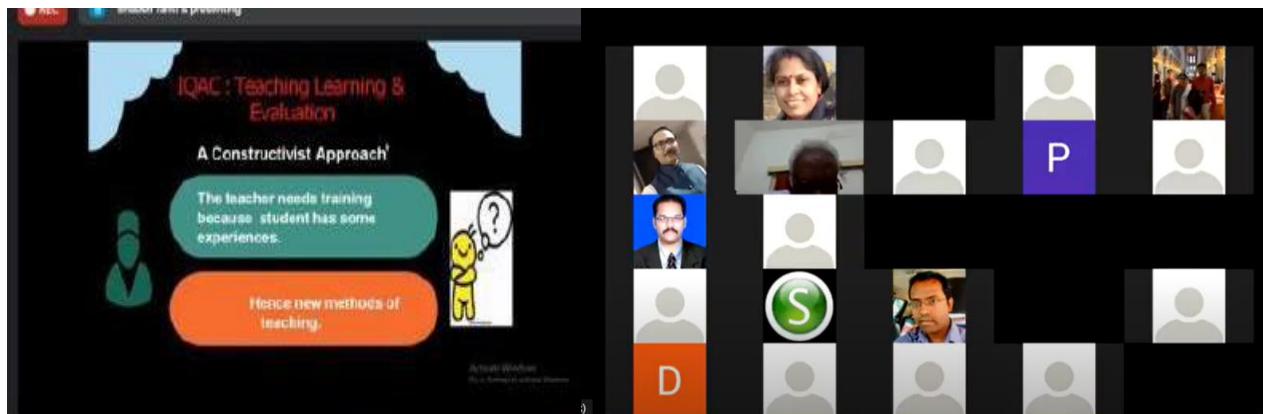

Prof. Anita Patra comes with over 20 years of experience in academia. She has a proven track record of administration in holding various positions like Dean Faculty Development, PGP Coordinator, School of Management, Dean School of Engineering and Technology in Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM). She has a keen interest in women entrepreneurship and rural entrepreneurship. Prof. Anita has various academic degrees to her credit i.e. Ph.D. in Management from Berhampur University, Odisha, MBA with a specialization in Finance from Berhampur University, Odisha. Currently she is serving as a Professor in the School of Management and also Registrar of Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Odisha.

About the session:

The workshop started with a warm welcome to the participants by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Prof. Supriya Pattanayak & Registrar prof. Anita Patra. Prof. Anita Patra in her welcome address emphasized the importance of conducting such a workshop and gave the program details. All the dignitaries on the dais released the 'Briefing Book' on NAAC. Prof. Anita Patra introduced all the faculties and staff from different departments handling different criteria of evaluation, Prof. Supriya Pattanayk Vice Chancellor, in her presidential remarks, emphasized the importance of NAAC accreditation particularly to remote colleges affiliated with this university. She also promised to extend all help and support in submitting the NAAC application for assessment. The workshop comprises three Technical Sessions followed by an Open Discussion FAQ. Session-I was headed by discussing the Relevance of Assessment and Accreditation. In Session II, an overview of the Revised Accreditation Framework (RAF). The session-III discussed in detail Institutional Preparation-before, during, and after the process of Assessment & Accreditation.

Objective:

- To discuss on the NAAC all the Criteria
- To divide the work among the departments and complete the documentation work

CENTURION UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT, ODISHA
"Student Grievance Addressing"
(15.05.2021)

Resource Person: Dr. Sangram Keshari Swain

No. of Participants : 23

REPORT

At CUTM, the welfare of our students is of utmost importance to us. Our carefully planned 4-step redressal mechanism helps us not only address student grievances quickly, but also effectively.

Students with complaints about non-academic issues like any instances of ragging or problems with accommodation, health insurance, scholarship, and cultural and sports events, can approach the Directorate of Student Affairs for redressal.

It is hoped that minor differences can be resolved without recourse to the process listed below. However, there may be situations where a more formal process may be necessary. This process is intended to settle disputes through mediation and reasoned discussion. It is not intended to supplant the student conduct process, the administrative rules of the University or any provisions of the collective bargaining agreement between the faculty or staff member and the University or any other appeal/grievance already existing within a department. Usually, the resolution of a complaint or grievance involves resolution of the problem/issue; not punishment of those involved.

More formal alternative procedures exist for situations such as when a student is erroneously denied registration, is erroneously required to pay a fine or penalty, erroneously has money withheld by the university, has been denied the right to amend their educational records, is charged with an offense under the student code of conduct, is alleging discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, disabling condition or marital status, or is alleging sexual harassment. For more formal procedures relating to such situations, consult the Affirmative Action Plan, Sexual Harassment Policy, Consensual Relationships Policy, Student Code of Conduct, Contested Case Procedures, or contact the Academic Standards Committee, the Affirmative Action Officer, or the Office of Student Relations.

FDP ON Post Pandemic Counselling

Date: 19-02-2022

Resource Person

Dr. Anita Patro

No. of Participants: 27

Resource Person: Dr. Anita Patro, Professor in the School of Management and also Registrar of Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Odisha.

About the session:

Following the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, Governments all around the world hastened to respond by enforcing measures such as social distancing, quarantine and isolation. While necessary, these measures can have a significant effect on young people's mental health. Fear, anxiety, anger, sadness and grief are compounded by being away from schools, work, and peers, adjusting to new ways of learning and working, as well as fear of losing jobs and family income. The new realities of working from home, temporary unemployment, home-schooling of children, and lack of physical contact with other family members, friends and colleagues take time to get used to. Adapting to lifestyle changes such as these, managing the fear of contracting the virus and worrying about people close to us who are particularly vulnerable, are challenging for all of us. They can be particularly difficult for people with mental health conditions.

Fortunately, there are lots of things that we can do to look after our own mental health and to help others who may need some extra support and care.

Objective:

- To provide a space to reflect on the mental health issues in the current context
- To identify strategies that could empower counsellors to face the professional challenges
- To provide an opportunity to upskill and retrain counsellors with specific essential micro-skills in the post-pandemic world
- To discuss the career options available in the post-pandemic world

At the end of the workshop, the participants would be

- Better equipped to deal with the professional challenges effectively in the post-pandemic
- Upskilled with specific micro-skills that could be beneficial in counselling students in the new normal situation
- Better prepared to face crisis situations and focus with positivity
- Guide the students in their career pathways in the post-pandemic

NAME OF THE PROGRAM: “Employee Orientation Programme”

DATE AND VENUE: 18-06-2022, Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Paralakhemundi campus.

ABOUT RESOURCE PERSON: Dr. S.P. Nanda is working as Dean, Administration and in Centurion University of Technology and Management, Paralakhemundi.

ABOUT THE SESSION: Dr. Anita Patra, Registrar of CUTM has welcomed the gathering with a brief introduction about the session. Dr. Patra has invited the HoDs of each department to discuss the scope of the facilities to be utilized for teaching, research and extension. The HoDs of the department also mentioned the scope of interdisciplinary research. The employees insisted on attending a test about the university. Dr. S.P. Nanda has mentioned several topics to bring the best out of students with new teaching methods and also discussed the smart classrooms.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Introduction to each department in the company and a list of employees to meet who are crucial to the new employee's success. The best orientations have set up these meetings prior to the new employee's arrival.
2. The objective is to help both undergraduate students and their parents adjust to the campus through a series of activities and sessions organized as part of the program.
3. The faculties were introduced to all the rules and policies of the institution.
4. The faculties were then told to bring all the documents required and meet at the HR office.

OUTCOME: Faculties were aware of the facilities in the university at the end of the programme. The programme would help them to focus on the academic activities within the university mandates by utilizing the available facilities.

Date: 08-06-2020 - 20-06-2020

Resource Person:
Mr. Satya Subham Dash
Project Guide, SAK Robotix

Mr. Satya Subham Dash is working as a Project associate and a designer in SAKRobotix Lab Pvt. Ltd. Bhubaneswar. He has completed his Engineering background in Electrical and Electronics Engineering. His areas of interests include Robotics, IOT, Coding etc.

No. of Participants: 20

About the FDP:

In this course, participants will learn about the technical skills of robotics. Robotics is a multidisciplinary subject comprising mechanics, electronics and coding. The program is designed to involve young minds with deep technical skills and prepare them for the 21st century workforce

RVIZ is a ROS graphical interface that allows you to visualize a lot of information, using plugins for many kinds of available topics. Rviz (short for "ROS visualization") is a 3D visualization software tool for robots, sensors, and algorithms. It enables you to see the robot's perception of its world (real or simulated).

Objective of the FDP:

The objectives of the FDP is to cover and give a basic hands-on-practice on the following points

- ROS BASIC
- ROS Intermediate
- ROS Navigation
- ROS Manipulation

Outcomes of the FDP:

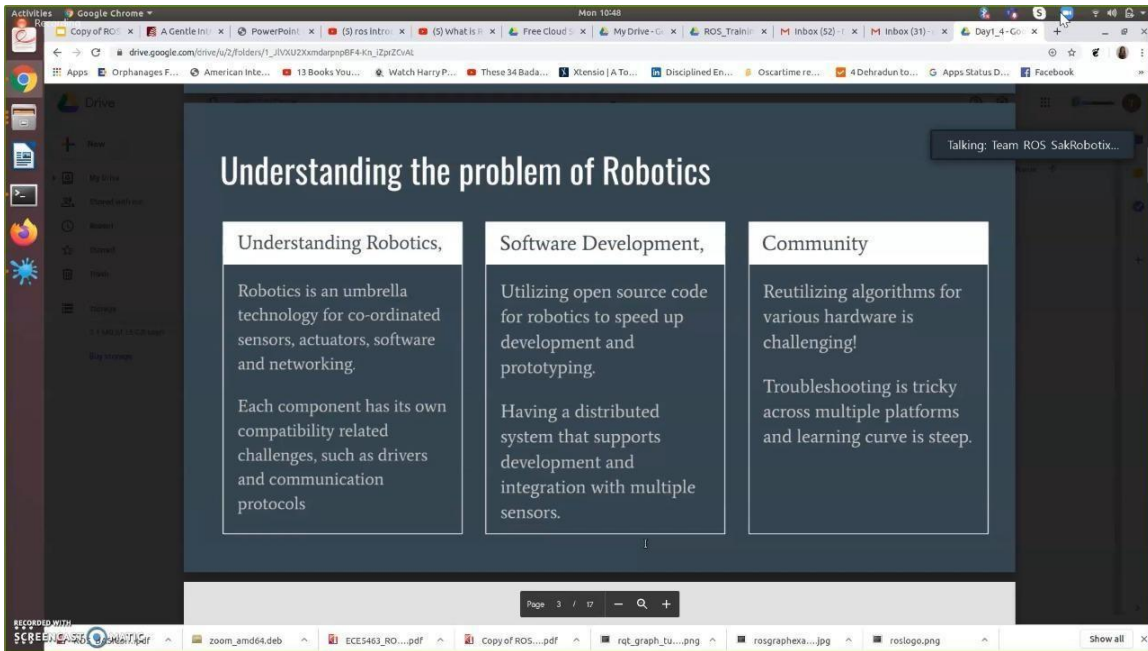

The participants will be able to know the

- Basic of Electronics components
- Basics of PCB Designing
- Basics of Sensors, Sensing & Estimation
- Coding, Basics of Algorithm and Flowchart
- Basics of Microcontroller
- Action & Motion planning models

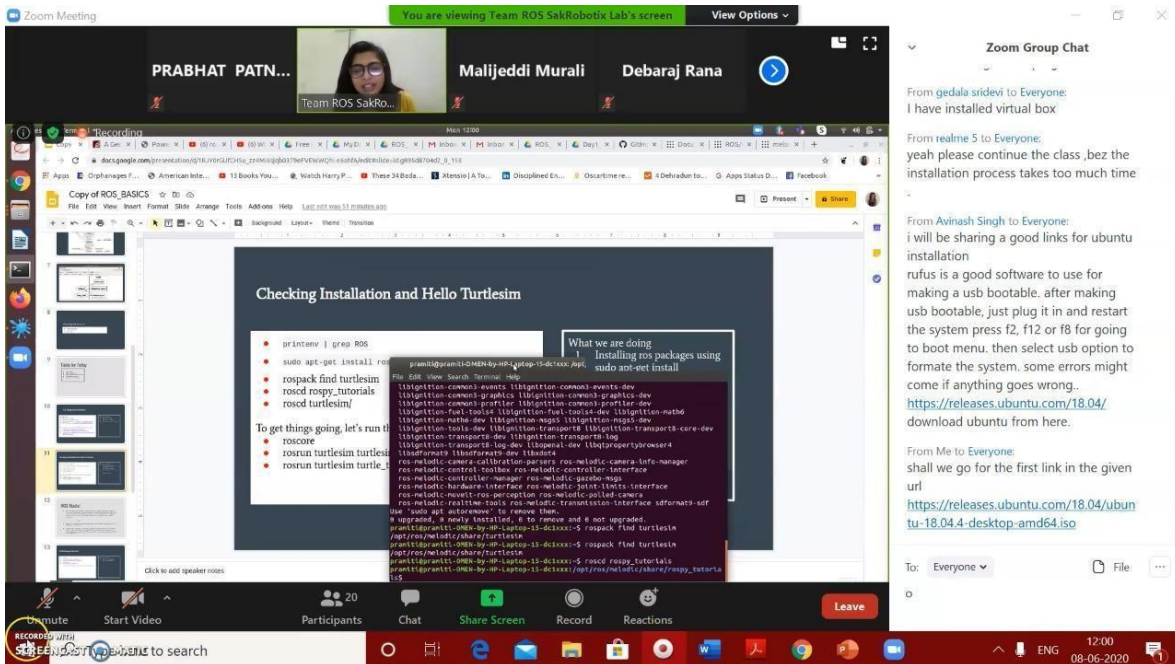

The schedule of the FDP:

Adobe Spark & Doodle Tools

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Resource Person

Dr. Amiya Singh, Dean SoVET, CUTM

Ms. Sikha, Senior Programme Manager, Adobe India

No. of Participants: 236

Date: 13th July 2020

Ms. Shikha, Senior Programme Manager at Adobe India.

Dr. Amiya Singh brings 10 years of experience in the Education, Research, and Development sectors. He has worked on multiple development projects with internal and external stockholding/partnerships. Grassroots innovation and Community Development have always been his passion. His efforts in recent years have focused more on his vision to create a robust academic ecosystem integrating Skill Development, Innovation, Employability, Entrepreneurship, and well-being.

About the session:

The session is about the Adobe Spark and Doodle tools, Adobe spark is an integrated web & mobile solution that enables everyone, especially teachers & their students to easily create & share impactful visual stories.

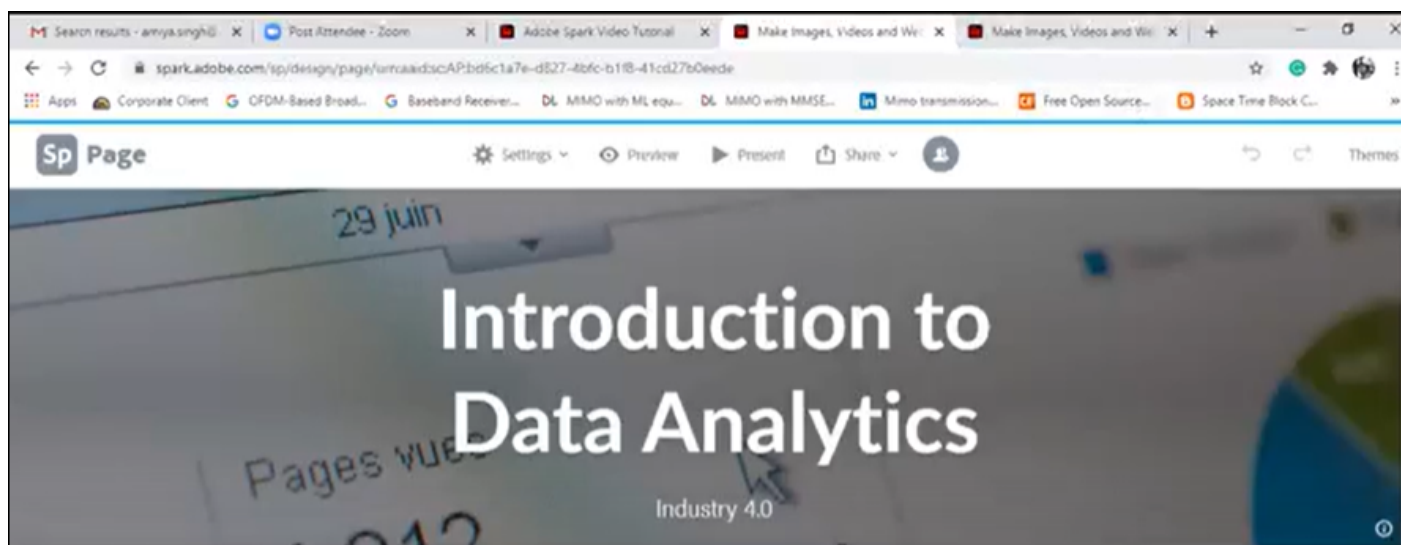

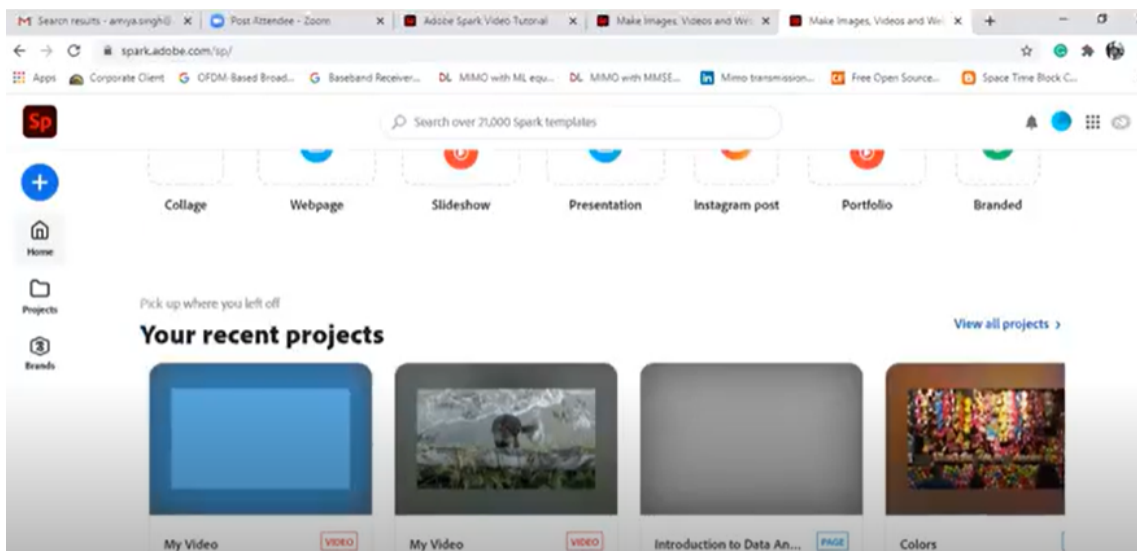

The services provided are Spark videos, Sparke Pages, and Spark posts. They can be used in the lesson plans and create an interesting video for lessons. Spark Page; helps people craft web stories. It can be used for things such as magazine-style travel stories, photo albums, online newsletters, reports, or anything else that you want to present on the web. It's a simplified web editing platform, with tools that let you mix text and imagery in a highly visual way. Adobe Spark Post is a great way for students to create attention-grabbing graphics that can be customized in a variety of ways to fit the needs of the post's message.

Objective:

- To introduce Adobe spark and doodle tools to the faculties and students
- To demonstrate the uses of the application to the faculties and the students
- To create own content using the applications

Outcomes:

Technology is used as a direct substitute for other low-tech tools (e.g., pencil and paper). While this can be beneficial (e.g., students develop their technology skills), we encourage you to think about ways that Adobe Spark can modify or redefine in-class learning. with all three Adobe Spark tools, students learn the different techniques for designing digital media. With trial and error, they are able to self-learn ways to create informative aesthetics. With the use of Adobe Spark Video, students are able to create integrated, step-by-step instructional videos with narration to practice the process and share with interested students.

FDP on Decision Making

Date: 17-07-2020

No. of Participants; 57

Resource Person; Dr. Pramod Patjoshi

About the session

The workshop was conducted on 17-07-2020 by Dr. Pramod Patjoshi Associate professor at Centurion University. The session was inaugurated by the Honourable, Registrar, Prof. Anita Patra. A typical decision-making session scenario includes team members talking over each other, more introverted participants being overpowered by the loudest people in the room, and team politics impeding real progress, often working-style differences and asymmetrical knowledge is just part of the overall problem.

It's also a good idea to check that your decision-making process is not disjointed from the rest of the problem-solving cycle and plugs right into the next steps.

Two Faces of Decision Style

- Role Style
- Styles used when person wishes to create favorable impression or whenever person is self-aware of thinking about how she/he is behaving.
- Operating Style
- Styles used when person is focusing on a problem or decision and is not self-aware or thinking about how she/he is behaving.

Faculty Development Programme on Job Readiness Training

Topic	: Job Readiness Training
Date	: 30-07-2020
Number of participants	: 10
Resource Person	: Prof. Prajna Pani, Professor, School of Management
Mode	: Online

Prof. Prajna Pani obtained her doctorate from Utkal University in 2008. Her specializations include Linguistics and ELT and 20th C British Literature. She has invested 21 years in teaching, mentoring, training and development. She is passionate about empowering people to succeed in their lives by enhancing their soft skills. She is associated with ELT@I, TESOL, Asia TEFL and GRDS. She is one of the editors of CFTRA Global. Prof. Pani has developed an Open Source Language Laboratory for anytime anywhere learning. She is the co-editor of the book 'Repositioning Folklore and Indigenous Knowledge Systems'. Prof. Pani has authored a book titled 'Memory as Transcendence in T. S Eliot's Poetry'. She has co-authored a book titled 'Emotional Intelligence and Communication at Workplace'. She has edited a book titled Education Technology for Engagement and Experience: A New Approach to Learning. She is an Udemy instructor of the course 'Contemporary Development Communication'.

The workshop was held online. In the first half there was a discussion starting with a perfect introduction, how to build your personality and how to represent yourself, then the discussion on interpersonal skills, resume writing & job search tips. In the second half there was a discussion on the topic of interview topics and skills.

Objective;

The program aims at bridging the gaps that the workplace demands by imparting the learners with the necessary skills. We are working on creating an environment such that learners are able to identify the options available in the job space and are able to make a well-thought decision.

Outcomes;

The Job Readiness Skills program encourages and supports participants to increase their skill level in the following areas: personal life management skills, employment skills, personal finance management and communication skills. This course prepares students for entry-level jobs by providing them with practical knowledge and safe work habits to succeed in the workforce.

Screenshots of the Events:

3 components of job searching that everyone deals with

- Sell yourself to employers
 - Prove that you have the necessary skills to perform the job successfully
 - Provide a track record of success that shows you'll help the company make money and solve problems

Job Readiness

- Strategies and tools to help you find a job
- What to plan for once you return to work
- Printed materials with detailed information

3 components of job searching that everyone deals with

■ Do your research

- On yourself: Do you have the required skills and track record of success (relevant career accomplishments) that prove you should get the job?
- Why do you have to share examples of your accomplishments?
 - Employers can't read your mind

Brochure of the event:

The brochure features a dark blue header with the Centurion University logo on the left and a decorative flourish on the right. The main title 'JOB READINESS TRAINING' is in large red letters. Below it, the date 'DATE: 30-07-2020' is centered. The resource person is identified as 'Prof. Prajna Pani', Professor at the School of Management. The co-ordinator is 'Prof. K.V.D Prakash', Dean of IIE & HRD. The event is organized by Centurion University of Technology & Management. The footer contains the university's name and tagline: 'centurion university of technology and management. Shaping Lives... Empowering Communities...'

Workshop on New Student Reporting Management

Date: 03-07-2020

Resource Person: Dr. Durga Prasad Padhi

No. of Participation: 14

About the session:

A student orientation program plays an important role in a student's transition to university life. Orientation programs are aimed at familiarizing the students with an unknown campus environment, its faculties, and infrastructure. It enables them to make an essential connection with studies and develop networks among other peers. "Where will be my classroom? What will be my majors, what is the course structure?"

The student orientation work is very important and needs to be planned properly and organized well. A webinar was conducted on 03-07-2020 for the first batch of students arriving and the plan and schedule for the first batch was prepared. The responsibilities were divided into different departments.

The three basic goals of the program;

- Introducing students to their college life
- Incorporating them into the university environment
- Giving the opportunity to the university members and faculties to get connected to the new batch
- Registration and Documentation procedures of all the students to be carried out

At the beginning of the first year, students need to be made acquainted with their surroundings on the campus. This includes introductory sessions, giving them an overview of university life; the rules and regulations mandated for each student in a particular college/ faculty. It is an essential period at the beginning of the college session, which allows the students to get settled in their new environment.

Report on New Student Reporting Management

Date: 04-07-2020

Resource Person: Dr. Durga Prasad Padhi

No. of Participation: 14

About the session:

A student orientation program plays an important role in a student's transition to university life. Orientation programs are aimed at familiarizing the students with an unknown campus environment, its faculties, and infrastructure. It enables them to make an essential connection with studies and develop networks among other peers. "Where will be my classroom? What will be my majors, what is the course structure?"

The student orientation work is very important and needs to be planned properly and organized well. A webinar was conducted on 04-07-2020 for the second batch of students arriving and the plan and schedule for the second batch was prepared. The responsibilities were divided into different departments.

The three basic goals of the program;

- Introducing students to their college life
- Incorporating them into the university environment
- Giving the opportunity to the university members and faculties to get connected to the new batch
- Registration and Documentation procedures of all the students to be carried out

At the beginning of the first year, students need to be made acquainted with their surroundings on the campus. This includes introductory sessions, giving them an overview of university life; the rules and regulations mandated for each student in a particular college/ faculty. It is an essential period at the beginning of the college session, which allows the students to get settled in their new environment.

Workshop on Health & Hygiene

Date; 03-08-2020

No. of participants; 31

Resource Person; Dr. Prajna Pani

Prof. Prajna Pani obtained her doctorate from Utkal University in 2008. Her specialisations include Linguistics and ELT and 20th C British Literature. She has invested 21 years in teaching, mentoring, training and development. She is passionate about empowering people to succeed in their lives by enhancing their soft skills.

About the Session:

In order to create awareness, a workshop on Health and Hygiene was conducted by Centurion University, on a virtual platform for all the faculties. This session aimed to highlight the importance of maintaining good personal hygiene and to illustrate the importance of comprehensive cleaning to maintain good health and a better personality in society.

Dr. Prajna Pani conducted this virtual Health and Hygiene session. Presentations on physical health, mental health, and healthy habits were made and explained in the session. Students were keen to learn more about personal hygiene and came up with a volley of questions in the Q&A session.

This session was a reinforcement to maintain and enhance good hygiene habits and contribute to the wellness of society.

Objective;

- Teaching the importance of health and hygiene to the students.
- Ensuring healthy practices among the students.
- Helping the students to understand organizational skills.
- Ensuring personal as well as social well-being through health and hygiene.

The session ended with Mr. Smruti Ranjan Parida Coordinator concluding the session with some remarks. Maintaining good health and hygiene means maintaining a very positive and fit social relationship as well. The various methods must be taught to the teachers on how to make the students grasp a healthy and hygienic routine.

Administrative Training on Library Management System through ERP

Date: 8-9-2020

Resource person: Mr. Sashi Bhusan Maharana

No. of participants : 58

About the resource person

Experienced in both Application Development (Android and Web) and Teaching/Training. he has 11+ years of experience in Academia and University IT Development which includes development, and testing of modules.

About the session

A school library management system is an ERP solution that helps in the automation of the school libraries and in-house operations. It helps in carrying out tasks such as managing books, buying from authors, calculating fees, ensuring maintenance, and others.

- It helps the admin to keep track of all the library activities at a single glance
- It helps faculty members to save time on repetitive tasks and work efficiently
- Encourages the students to make use of libraries
- Helps the institutes in managing budgets and finances in one place
- Ensures security and safe data backup
- Eliminates the scope for human errors

The main purpose of a library management system is to handle everyday tasks of the library such as returning books, issuing books, fees calculations, and searching.

The faculties were introduced to the process and features Library management system are-

- Data storage - Entering data, deleting data, and storing it
- Report - Gives reports of borrowed books, available books, and students.
- Available - To check for the availability of books in the library
- Search - To avoid the physical search of the books

Modules of Library Management System (L.M.S.)

- Student Registration & Search Module
- Supplier Details & Search Module
- Fully automated features using masters
- Complete Book Details Category wise
- Simple automated book Issue & receive system with least manual entries.
- Dynamic Reports of Available & Issued books.
- Automated fine system for delay or loss of book.

Library Management Features

- Provision for entry of Lost Books
- Accountability of Available, Issued & Lost Books.
- Automatic Calculation of Fine from Student
- Track of Collected Fine from Student

Workshop on Computer Maintenance and Usage

Date: 16-09-2020

No. of Participants; 23

Resource Person; Mr. K.V. Kalyan Chakravarthy, Assistant Professor, Computer Science Engineering

About the Resource Person;

Mr. K.V. Kalyan Chakravarthy is currently working as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science Engineering at Centurion University of Technology and Management, Andhra Pradesh. He is pursuing his Ph.D. in the field of Network Security at Andhra University, Vizag, MTech Degree from Andhra University, Vizag in the year 2011.

The objective of the workshop;

- Knowledge of Computer Hardware
- Identify computer hardware Issues/Problems to determine faulty Computer hardware
- Know Basic computer troubleshooting tips
- Knowledge of Operating systems and device Drivers
- Identify hardware Peripherals Basic knowledge of safeguarding hardware
- Apply the knowledge to repair/maintain a computer

The session also discussed Computer Maintenance; Check harmful materials e.g., dust, virus, outdated software, faulty electrical Power/gadgets e.g., cables, sockets, extensions, etc. Check any malfunctions of peripherals. Proper maintenance helps to keep the computer running smoothly for years.

Key Takeaways

- Always ensure that the power has been turned off before installing or troubleshooting any hardware part of the computer
- Before opening a computer case, always unplug the power cord from your computer
- After unplugging the power cord from your case, Hold the power button on for at least 5 seconds. This will drain any residual electricity from the power supply
- Always ground yourself to the case frame while touching any inside components. This can be done by touching the case frame with your bare hand or using a clamp-on grounding device made specifically for this purpose
- Keep all liquids away
- Avoid installing components when the computer is in operation
- When installing any peripheral or device, always read the installation instructions that come with the device. Never apply force to try and connect any plug/device

Hardware Maintenance

Make sure that the hardware is operating properly.

- Check the condition of parts.
- Repair or replace worn parts.
- Keep components clean.
- Create a hardware maintenance program.

Preventive Maintenance

PC Preventive Maintenance Overview

- Benefits of Preventive Maintenance
 - Reduces potential hardware and software problems, computer downtime and repair costs by:
 - Improving data protection
 - Extending the life of the components
 - Improving equipment stability
- Preventive Maintenance Tasks
 - Hardware tasks include:
 - remove dust from fans, power supply, internal components and peripherals, clean the mouse, keyboard, and display, check for and secure any loose cables.
 - Software tasks include:
 - review and install appropriate OS, security and driver updates, regularly update virus definition files, regularly scan for virus and spyware, remove unwanted programs, regularly scan hard drive for errors.

Big Blue Button for Online Teaching

Date: 18-09-2020

Resource Person

Mr K.V. Kalyan, Dept. CSE, CUTM

No. of Participants: 97

About the session

BigBlueButton follows a “mobile first” design: the interface was first optimized for the mobile devices and then for the desktop. The result is your students don’t need to install any mobile application: BigBlueButton runs within the mobile browser and is compatible with Android version 6.0+ and iOS version 12.2+ Many of the mobile apps from the popular learning management systems (such as Canvas, Schoology, and Moodle) can launch directly into a BigBlueButton session.

Objectives

- Create a hybrid class
- Viewing a recording
- Students can join from anywhere

Outcome

BigBlueButton is an education-specific, open-source virtual classroom that is natively integrated by over 75% of the world’s learning management systems including Moodle, Canvas, Sakai, D2L, Jenzabar, and Schoology.

BigBlueButton focuses on empowering teachers to engage remote students for effective online learning. This is a result of collaboration with educators worldwide over the project’s 10+ years of development. Our goal is to enable every student to have a high-quality online learning experience.

FDP on Critical Thinking

Date: 9-10-2020

No. of participants- 100

Resource person: Promod Kumar Patjoshi

Working as an Associate Professor (Finance) in the School of Management, Centurion University, and Management, Bhubaneswar. Completed MBA from Kanchipuram University in 1998 with specialization in Finance and completed a Ph.D. entitled “The Impact of Inflation on Business Performance under Conditions of Limited Financial Disclosure: Case of Firms Operating in India”.

About the session

The variety of challenges being faced at hand requires various innovative methods to resolve them from time to time. The ever changing nature of problem and causative factors throwing up new dimension to various inflicting features depending on multidimensional attribution leave the practitioner's and researcher both awe struck and mesmerized. The FDP illustrated how Critical Thinking can help to solve Complex problems in the industry as well as the academic circle.

Objective and Outcomes of the workshop:

At the end of the session, participants should be able to:

- Define Critical thinking
- Explain the value of critical thinking at work
- Identify situations requiring critical thinking
- Recognize barriers to thinking critically

- Follow critical thinking process
- ask meaningful and relevant questions
- Recognize how language can be used to manipulate thoughts
- Identify common fallacies and avoid falling prey to their use
- Define terms clearly in their efforts to ensure common understanding.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The training program for hostel wardens has been prepared after taking account of their formal duties (as prescribed in the job description) and practical day-to-day activities. The hostel wardens are normally drawn from permanent faculty members and can belong to a variety of academic disciplines. No formal training is imparted to the Hostel warden to carry out their duties. The training course has been designed to introduce the wardens to essential concepts and equip them with the requisite skills to manage their everyday functions.

The training program introduces the wardens to essential concepts in management, leadership and organizational behaviour. These participants will employ these concepts as frameworks to conceptualize their individual functions. Building on this Understanding, the Participants are introduced to a variety of tools to manage their own functions that include communication, Negotiation and conflict resolution, emotional intelligence and counselling.

About the session

The three financial reports that we have discussed in previous chapters—the Profit and Loss (P&L) Statement, the Balance Sheet, and the Statement of Cash Flow—are used by both management and outside parties in evaluating hotel operations. We will now talk about two types of internal financial and management reports that hotel managers use:

- One report summarizes and presents the operating results for the previous day or week.
- The second report forecasts or schedules operations and functions for the next day or next week.

Objectives

1. To learn about internal hotel management reports.
2. To understand and be able to use Daily Revenue Reports.
3. To understand and be able to use revenue forecasting reports.
4. To understand and be able to use labor productivity reports.
5. To understand the relationship between revenue changes and profit changes

Outcome

It is extremely important to understand the concepts of incremental revenues and the expected impact that changes in revenue will have on retention or flow thru to profits. These terms describe the guidelines set for managers to assist them in controlling expenses and maintaining expected productivity. Because some expenses are fixed, there should be no increase in them if revenues increase. That will have a positive effect on profitability. Likewise, there is no decrease in fixed expenses if revenues decline. This will have a negative effect on profitability. All department managers are expected to manage their variable expenses whether revenues increase or decrease.

Interpersonal Skill

WORKSHOP

Resource Person

Dr. Amiya Singh

Dean SoVET, CUTM

No. of Participants: 22

Date: 20-11- 2020

About session :

Interpersonal skills are the skills we use every day when we communicate and interact with other people, both individually and in groups. They include a wide range of skills, but particularly communication skills such as listening and effective speaking. They also include the ability to control and manage your emotions.

Developing emotional intelligence is key to interpersonal communication. This workshop allows attendees to closely analyze their own preferred communication styles and learn how to adapt their style, to enhance each and every personal interaction. This programme will explore many key communication areas including body language, transactional analysis, communication under pressure and how to recognise and deal with workplace conflict. By the end of this workshop attendees will develop the confidence to handle a wide range of difficult and demanding situations more effectively.

Objective:

- Develop the confidence to handle a wide range of difficult and demanding situations more effectively.
- Develop the skills to negotiate and influence with confidence.
- Develop a broader range of interpersonal communication techniques to use in a variety of settings.
- To analyze their own interpersonal communication style

SDP on Exam Management

Date: 21-01-2021

Resource Person

Mr. K.V. Kalyan, Dept. CSE, CUTM

No. of Participants: 28

Resource Person:

He is currently working as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science Engineering at Centurion University of Technology and Management, Andhra Pradesh.

About the session:

The session started with a small introduction to the Exam Management system software. An examination management system is a software that's been developed to manage the entire exam process. It covers all the activities that are related to examination management, right from receiving enrolment and examination forms, to the processing of exams, printing, distribution, and statistical reports.

Online Examination Management System Modules

- ADMIN PANEL – It involves the login part of the admin, who can create the paper and save all the details in the database server and can have access to all the details as well as the answers submitted by the students. Only the admin can authenticate all the A-to-Z things involved in the database server and can have access to change them even after once the paper is designed or released.
- STUDENT PANEL– This panel involves a student zone where students can enter into their account by the id and password given to them and can access all the questions and give their answers as per their reliability.
- ONLINE QUIZ PATTERN– It includes the designing part of the quiz system and the front-end part in which the looks, design, questions, details everything will be added.

Objective:

- Integrate the activities of the Office of the Controller of the Examinations
- Streamline process and improve efficiency
- Decreases delay and cost
- Reports for faster and more accurate decision making
- Better service to students and staff

- a) Login to the online examination system.
- b) Attend Test
- c) Submit

The form of questions in test page:-

- Multiple choice questions
- The questions are selected at random

Why Online Examination

- Stored Repository of exams
- General problem with time for students
- Auto grading
- Flexible
- Time Saver
- Security
- Develop a system which allows the faculty to create, modify and store questions which can be grouped together to form sections and these sections can be grouped together to form tests/examinations.

Report on Staying Healthy and Safe at Workplace

Date; 16-04-2021

No. of participants, 22

Resource Person: Prof. Prajna Pani

About Resource Person:

Prof. Prajna Pani obtained her doctorate from Utkal University in 2008. Her specialisations include Linguistics and ELT and 20th C British Literature. She has invested 21 years in teaching, mentoring, training and development. She is passionate about empowering people to succeed in their lives by enhancing their soft skills.

About the Session:

In order to create awareness, a workshop on Staying Healthy and Safe at Workplace was conducted by centurion university, on a virtual platform for all the faculties. This session aimed to highlight the importance of maintaining good personal hygiene and to illustrate the importance of comprehensive cleaning to maintain good health and a better personality in society.

Ms. Prajna Pani conducted this virtual Health and Hygiene session. Presentations on physical health, mental health, and healthy habits were made and explained in the session. Students were keen to learn more about personal hygiene and came up with a volley of questions in the Q&A session.

This session was a reinforcement to maintain and enhance good hygiene habits and contribute to the wellness of society.

Workplaces have played an important role in both the spread and mitigation of the COVID-19 pandemic throughout the world. Being provided a healthy and safe workplace throughout the pandemic and beyond is a human right. Maintaining open, safe and healthy workplaces is of vital importance to protecting livelihoods, wellbeing and public health. Critical public health measures can help protect workers, their clients, and the community at large. Through an introduction and 5 modules, this course aims to guide workers and their representatives, business leaders, employers, managers and occupational health and safety professionals on how to protect themselves and their workplace during the COVID-19 pandemic.

- General safety orientation for new employees and employees starting new jobs, including company safety regulations and emergency procedures.
- Specific training on the hazards of their jobs and how to do their jobs safely. (Many OSHA standards include specific training requirements)
- Retraining
 - As required by the standards

- When jobs change
- When employees return from long absence
- As needed to ensure employees know how to do their jobs safely.

The session ended with Mr. Smruti Ranjan Parida concluded the session with some remarks Maintaining good health and hygiene means maintaining a very positive and fit social relationship as well.

No. of participants: 12

About the resource person

Dr. Sangram Kesari Singh has done his Ph.D. in Computer Science and Engineering having 12 years of teaching experience having a demonstrated history of working in the higher education industry. Skilled in Social Services, Teaching, Research, Data Analysis, and Higher Education. A strong education professional having multidimensional approaches like Engineering, Technology, Management, Social Service and Law. Social Responsibility activity has been my Passion always.

About the session

The students' affairs committee organized a workshop for all the hostel staff on how to address the grievances of the students. The student's grievance address involves a process of investigation in which the 'Student's Grievance Cell' enquires and analyses the nature and pattern of the grievances in a strictly confidential manner. Matters are disclosed to only those, who have a legitimate role in resolving the matter. Emphasis on procedural fairness has been given with a view to "the right to be heard and right to be treated without bias".

Scope: The students to approach the cell for their grievances regarding academic matters, examination matters, financial matters, health services, library, and other services.

Objective: To provide a mechanism for students of the college to air out their grievances and to provide redressal for the same so that they have smooth tenure at the college from the day of admission to their graduation.

Grievance Redressal Procedure

The students have to place their grievances in the suggestion box/complaint book placed at various points like the college office, library, hostels, and grievance redressal cell. The coordinator in turn intimates the matter to the committee for necessary action. The final report based on the grievance received and resolved will be submitted to the principal and further course of action will be decided and the same shall be intimated to the students

Micro Teaching (MT)

Date: 28th June 2019 to 29th June 2019

Resource Person:

Dr. Bijay Bhujabal, Dean, SoM,
Centurion University of Technology and Management

No. of Participants: 21

Brief Profile of Resource Person:

Dr. Bijay Bhujabal, School of Management, Centurion University of Technology and Management, Odisha. He has more than 20 years of teaching and industry experiences. He has developed 1 UG and 4 PG Degree Programs in Healthcare and Hospital Management and it is highly rated for delivery of learning at UG, PG and Executive levels.

About the session:

Lack of pedagogical training for medical teachers has often been commented on. Over the last half century or so, several formal and informal avenues are available for teacher training. Amongst the so-called informal modes, microteaching (MT) has been a very widely discussed, demonstrated and sometimes used tool since 1960. However, its use has not been proportional to the advantages that are likely to accrue from its use. MT was originally introduced for 'teachers in the making' (or for pre-service training) during their training for bachelor or master's in education programmes. The Purpose of MT is to provide a non-threatening environment to the teacher so as to practice and improve one's teaching skills by receiving feedback from colleagues on one's teaching skills

Objective

- Plan
- Teach
- Observe
- Re-plan
- Re-teach
- Re-observe

Outcome: Micro Teaching is an innovative method of training wherein the teacher trainee or a student-teacher conducts a class for a small group of students for a small time. This is intended to enhance the skills of teachers. By focusing on a specific skill at one time, this approach has proved to be beneficial. It is important to have micro teaching skills.

Micro teaching

Date: 13-07-2019

Resource Person: Prof. Bijay Bhujabal

No. of Participants: 28

About the programme:

Microteaching is organized practice teaching in a simulated environment. It aims at giving young teachers the much needed confidence, support, and feedback by letting them try out a slice of what they plan to do with their students in the presence of experienced teaching consultants, mentors, language experts, soft skills trainers, and peers. “Microteaching as a professional development tool in teacher training programs provides student teachers with opportunities to explore and reflect on their own and others’ teaching styles and to acquire new teaching techniques and strategies.

Outcomes of the programme:

- To state the Lesson Objectives in the second slide.
- Introduced the topics better
- Became increasingly aware of their OKs, noises and gap fillers.5. Avoided redundancies like ‘return back’, ‘could not be able to’ etc
- Used more meaningful pauses and paced their deliveries well
- Used videos and animations carefully and judiciously

CENTURION UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT, ODISHA
“Employee Orientation Programme”
(15 May, 2019)

REPORT

No.of Participants: 16

NAME OF THE PROGRAM: “Employee Orientation Programme”

DATE AND VENUE: 15 May, 2019, Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Paralakhemidi campus.

ABOUT RESOURCE PERSON: Dr. S.P. Nanda is working as Dean, Administration and in Centurion University of Technology and Management, Paralakhemundi.

ABOUT THE SESSION: Dr. Anita Patra, Registrar of CUTM has welcomed the gathering with a brief introduction about the session. Dr. Patra has invited the HoDs of each department to discuss the scope of the facilities to be utilized for teaching, research and extension. The HoDs of the department also mentioned the scope of interdisciplinary research. The employees insisted on attending a test about the university. Dr. S.P. Nanda has mentioned several topics to bring the best out of students with new teaching methods and also discussed the smart classrooms.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Introduction to each department in the company and a list of employees to meet who are crucial to the new employee's success. The best orientations have set up these meetings prior to the new employee's arrival.
2. The objective is to help both undergraduate students and their parents adjust to the campus through a series of activities and sessions organized as part of the program.
3. The faculties were introduced to all the rules and policies of the institution.
4. The faculties were then told to bring all the documents required and meet at the HR office.

OUTCOME: Faculties were aware of the facilities in the university at the end of the programme. The programme would help them to focus on the academic activities within the university mandates by utilizing the available facilities.

Workshop on Latex

Date: 10-09-2019

Resource Person: Dr. Subrata Sarangi

About the resource person: He completed his Graduation (in Physics Honours) at Ravenshaw College in 1983 and M.Sc. at IIT, Kanpur in 1985. Subsequently, joined the Physical Research Laboratory (PRL) at Ahmedabad, Gujarat for Ph.D. degree in Theoretical Nuclear (Structure) Physics; received the Ph.D degree from Gujarat University in 1993. He carried out two Post Doctoral Fellowships, first at PRL, Ahmedabad and then at National Aerospace Laboratories (NAL), Bangalore and took up a Lecturer position at Birla Institute of Technology and Science (BITS), Pilani and continued for 3 years up to 1998. He has published 14 publications in peer reviewed journals and 10 in national and international conferences.

About the programme: latex is a high-quality typesetting system, which includes features designed for the production of technical and scientific documentation and is considered as a standard for the communication and publication of scientific documents. It also has a prominent role in the preparation and publication of books and articles.

The main aim of this FDP is to introduce the absolute beginners to latex and learning the basic commands and to write documents in latex . The importance of the above has increased during the period of the pandemic as it is required for conducting classes, organize seminars/workshops online.

Workshop on Adobe Spark

Topic	: Adobe Spark
Date	: 20.09-2019
Number of participants	: 11
Resource Person	: Ms. Suchismita Nayak & Mr. Sanjay Harichandan
Venue	: Room No. 204 Aryabhata

The session was addressed by Mr. Sanjay Harichandan, the session discussed the adobe spark programme and the features that are provided by the app. Adobe Spark for Education is a powerful yet easy to use visual graphic tool that helps teachers and students create images, videos, web pages, and more. Adobe Spark, which comprises Adobe Spark Post, Adobe Spark Page, and Adobe Spark Video, can all be accessed through a web browser. The 2nd half session was taken by Ms. Suchismita Nayak and the other half discussed the app features and how to access all the features and use it for better presentation of the topics.

Objectives:

- To introduce Adobe spark and doodle tools to the faculties and students
- To demonstrate the uses of the application to the faculties and the students
- To create own content using the applications

Micro - Teaching

Resource Person

Prof. Bijay Bhujabal

No. of Students and/or Faculty Participated: 12

Date: 21- 09 - 2019

About the session:

Micro Teaching is a teacher training technique for learning teaching skills. It employs real teaching situations for developing skills and helps to get deeper knowledge regarding the art of teaching. This Stanford technique involved the steps of “plan, teach, observe, re-plan, re-teach and re-observe” and has evolved as the core component in 91% of on-campus clinical teaching development programs, with the significant reduction in the teaching complexities with respect to number of students in a class, scope of content, and timeframe, etc.

Objective:

- To enable the teacher trainee to learn and assimilate new teaching skills under controlled situations.
- To enable trainees to gain confidence.
- To utilize the academic potential of a trainee.
- To gain maximum advantage with little time, money and material.

Outcomes:

- To enhance the growth of the learner as well as teacher.

- To focus on the students ability with various aspects of teaching.

Dr. Amiya Singh & Ms. Sikha

No. of Faculty Participated: 6

Date: 21- 09 - 2019

Dr. Amiya Singh, brings 10 years of experience in the Education, Research, and Development sectors. He has worked in multiple development projects with internal and external stockholding/partnerships. Grassroots innovation and Community Development have always been his passion. His efforts in recent years have focused more on his vision to create a robust academic ecosystem integrating Skill Development, Innovation, Employability and Entrepreneurship, Wellbeing. Also, his involvement in projects related to agriculture and livelihood for rural development has been quite significant.

About the session:

The session is about Adobe Spark, Adobe spark is an integrated web & mobile solution that enables everyone, especially teachers & their students to easily create & share impactful visual stories.

The services provided are Spark videos, Spark Pages, and Spark posts. They can be used in lesson plans and create interesting videos for lessons. Spark Page; helps people craft web stories. It can be used for things such as magazine-style travel stories, photo albums, online newsletters, reports, or anything else that you want to present on the web. It's a simplified web editing platform, with tools that let you mix text and imagery in a highly visual way. Adobe Spark Post is a great way for students to create attention-grabbing graphics that can be customized in a variety of ways to fit the needs of the post's message.

Objective:

- To introduce Adobe spark and doodle tools to the faculties and students
- To demonstrate the uses of the application to the faculties and the students
- To create own content using the applications

Outcomes:

Technology is used as a direct substitute for other low-tech tools (e.g., pencil and paper). While this can be beneficial (e.g., students develop their technology skills), we encourage you to think about ways that Adobe Spark can modify or redefine in-class learning. With all three Adobe Spark tools, students learn the different techniques for designing digital media. With trial and error, they are able to self-learn ways to create informative aesthetics. With the use of Adobe Spark Video, students are able to create integrated, step-by-step instructional videos with narration to practice the process and share with interested students.

GROUP DYNAMICS

Resource Person

Prof. Sibakripa Bose & Dr. Are Holen

No. of Students and/or Faculty Participated: 28

Date: 16 - 10 - 2019

About the session:

We learn to lead by experience. Today is an opportunity to experience leading and facilitating in a group setting and to observe what roles you play in a group. We will offer some tools for observation and action that will help you to be more effective leader's facilitators. There will be lots of group exercises. Some may be things you have done before. If so, go with the flow. Be an observer of others behaviour and your own. You'll still learn an amazing amount. One thing that professional facilitator's say, they never stop learning, and learn something new each time they facilitate a group.

Objective:

Have a set of initiative games & instructions. Break into small groups and have each group research and be ready to present, run and debrief the game. Throughout the afternoon, rotate groups through running a game. Showing sequencing & debriefing. Also hand out debriefing techniques cards so that people can try certain things as they debrief their game.

Outcomes:

1. Setting the Tone
2. Challenge by Choice
3. Goal Setting
4. Thaw-Shift-Refreeze & Challenge
5. Adventure Wave
6. Sequencing the Activity

About the Session:

The session is about how to conduct research in a systematic and proper manner. Session includes methods like where to collect data, how to collect data and analysis of the data. This will ensure that the steps followed are best fit for the research aims and objectives and explains why they were followed. Also, knowledge about Qualitative (textual data) and Quantitative (numerical data) research will be imparted. Descriptive analysis and Inferential statistics

Objectives:

- To acquaint with data collection & analysis through scientific procedures and systematic way
- To find the best design the experiment (DoEs) for the data
- To analyse the data using software and present them in a scientific way

Outcome:

How to formulate a research question and correct research objectives were discussed. This session equipped the participants with enough knowledge and information about different types of data collection and analysis tools. Steps to follow while Designing an experiment and how to conduct both laboratory as well as field experiments were discussed. Participants came to know about

CRDs, RBDs, LSDs and other designs and about different tools (SAS, SPSS and Minitab) for data analysis.

Research & Proposal Making
Resource Person: Dr. Sushanth Kumar Biswal
Date: 25.08.2018
Number of participants: 68

Dr. Susanta Kumar Biswal is currently holding the position of Professor (Chemistry) and held the position of Dean, School of Applied Sciences, Centurion University of Technology and Management, Odisha, India from July, 2016. He received his Ph.D. in Chemistry in the year 2003 from Utkal University, Odisha, India. He has 20+ years of teaching experience in various branches of chemistry in different Technical and Non-Technical degree colleges/ Universities and 17 years of Post Ph.D. research Experience. He has 18 years of administrative experience in the capacity of HoD, Principal and Dean. He is fellow and Life member/Patron member of several professional bodies such as Institution of Chemists (India), International Congress of Chemistry & Environment, International Society of Biotechnology, society of polymer science India, Association of Separation Scientists and Technologists and Mining, Minerals, Metals and Materials Society of India etc.

About the Workshop:

The objectives of the research proposal are to help the researcher to define the contents and to plan and execute a research project, and to inform potential collaborators and supporters about the topic. The proposal that is produced during the process can be submitted to agencies for possible funding. The workshop was very informative and the participants learned that In a research proposal, the goal is to present the author's plan for the research they intend to conduct. In some cases, part of this goal is to secure funding for said research. In others, it's to have the research approved by the author's supervisor or department so they can move forward with it. In some cases, a research proposal is a required part of a graduate school application. In every one of these circumstances, research proposals follow the same structure. In a research proposal, the author demonstrates how and why their research is relevant to their field. They demonstrate that the work is necessary to the following:

- Filling a gap in the existing body of research on their subject
- Underscoring existing research on their subject, and/or
- Adding new, original knowledge to the academic community's existing understanding of their subject.
- The program ended with a vote of thanks from the Registrar CUTM followed by a grand lunch.

About the resource person

Rahul Dasondi is an ambitious professional who has the passion for career counseling. A Mechanical Engineer by his academic qualification and a certified Global Career Counsellor by profession from the University of California, Los Angeles Extension and Univariety, Mr. Rahul Dasondi has a vast knowledge and compassion towards this field. Along with working in an NGO, he also takes up counseling workshops in schools & colleges. believing that there's a major change in the education system today, students need proper career guidance and a 360 degrees knowledge about their prospective careers.

Mr. Rahul Dasondi's passion towards the field of career counseling has highly motivated him to take up entrepreneurship in this industry. Today, he is the founder of Career Achiever 360, Kothri, MP. His commitment to providing complete guidance to students and the youth looking for college & career counseling makes him one of the most sought-after career counselors in Madhya Pradesh.

About the Programme

Career counseling is a type of advice-giving and support provided by career counselors to their clients, to help the clients manage their journey through life, learning and work changes (career). This includes career exploration, making career choices, managing career changes, lifelong career development and dealing with other career-related issues. There is no agreed definition of career counseling worldwide, mainly due to conceptual, cultural and linguistic differences. However, the terminology of 'career counseling' typically denotes a professional intervention which is conducted either one-on-one or in a small group. Career counseling is related to other types of counseling (e.g. marriage or clinical counseling). What unites all types of professional counseling is the role of practitioners, who combine giving advice on their topic of expertise with counseling techniques that support clients in making complex decisions and facing difficult situations.

Objective:

The main aim of career counseling is to help students and professionals choose a field that is in tune with their skills and their job expectations. Thus, with professional help, most candidates end up choosing the right career and perform their level best, which ultimately helps them succeed

Outcomes:

The goal of Career Counseling is to not only help you make the decisions you need to make now, but to give you the knowledge and skills you need to make future career and life decisions.

No. of Participants: 34

About the resource person

A.Avinash working as Assistant Professor, Dept of CSE, Centurion University of Technology and Management, Andhra Pradesh . Interested to work on Machine learning, Natural Language Processing, Problem Solving Methodologies , and ChatBot.

About the programmed and objective

It is generally seen that there is confusion among taxpayers about maintenance of books of accounts under Income Tax Act like who is required compulsorily to maintain the books of accounts and for how many years one has to keep his books of accounts.

Objectives

- To familiarize with the basic conceptual framework of Financial Accounting i.e., from recording of transactions for Understanding and Interpreting of Financial Statements.
- To provide the knowledge to the audience about financial statements and principles underlying them and to develop their skills in reading Annual Reports.
- To equip the audience with the skills required to understand cost statements/records and management accounting.

Outcome:

Develop an awareness and understanding of the accounting process and fundamental accounting principles that underpin the development of financial statements (e.g. accrual accounting vs. cash accounting, definition, recognition, measurement and disclosure of assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses; inventory valuation methods and methods of depreciation).

Understand and interpret the nature and role of the principal financial statements (i.e., the Income Statement, the Statement of Financial Position, and the Statement of Cash Flows). Understand and apply cost concepts and management accounting to analyse common business management decisions such as pricing a product and services.

In this era of Globalization, Indian education is passing through an important phase where educators are learning various techniques & theories for effective teaching and research. Also, the current pandemic scenario worldwide with its limitations to interact and meet people in physical space has forced many industries to change their delivery patterns and adopt innovation to survive. Hence, adopting disruptive innovation becomes a key to successful teaching and learning too.

Academicians around the world have been tasked with changing their traditional face to face classroom teaching to remote teaching and at the same time dealing with the creative research methods with many alternatives available to find out the real gap in the market and to keep themselves updated. This Faculty Development Programme provides an opportunity for participants/academicians to refine and re-tune their approach and skills of teaching/research in today's digital era and aims to provide:

- Innovative tools, techniques, and research methods for business management teaching in the digital era.
- To equip academicians towards understanding the recent advancements in technology along with its application to management education.
- To get a deep understanding of modern teaching & learning tools

“Research Proposal writing”

Date: 23-02-2019

Resource Person

Dr. Smita Mishra Panda

No. of Participants: 14

Venue: CUTM, Bhubaneswar campus

About resource person: Dr. Smita Mishra Panda is educated in Delhi University and the Asian Institute of Technology (AIT), Bangkok. Prior to joining CUTM, she was Professor at the HDF School of Management, Bhubaneswar, Associate Professor at the Institute of Rural Management, Anand (IRMA) and Researcher at the United Nations Centre for Regional Development, Japan, and AIT, Bangkok. Dr. Smita has been a visiting faculty to Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway, The Monash Asia Institute of Monash University, Melbourne (Australia) and The School of Built Environment and Planning, Curtin University, Perth (Australia).

About the Session:

Research is the cornerstone to broaden the horizon of our knowledge through systematic investigation. It will establish or confirm facts or reaffirm results of previous work or solve new or existing problems or support theorems or develop new theories. A good research proposal making is a key to get the project sanctioned. Hence, a short training workshop has been designed to cover fundamentals of research proposal methodology, focusing on various aspects related to defining research problems.

Objectives:

- To enable the participants, define research problems, developing an approach to research problems and selection of suitable research design for a successful research proposal writing.

Outcomes:

The faculty development program came to an end with a great series of lectures and interaction by Dr. Smita Mishra Panda.

Enterprise Resource Planning

Date: 27-02-2019

Venue: Room No. 204 Madhusudhan Block

Resource Person: Mr. Nrusinha Das

No. of Participants: 15

About session:

The workshop follows an extended understanding of ERP, which includes the inter-company business processes related to Supply Chain Management and Customer Relationship Management. The workshop gives an understanding of what Enterprise Systems (also commonly termed as Enterprise Resource Planning Systems, ERPs) are. After learning about what these systems are, he discussed why these systems are useful to companies, Specifically, what are the important points to consider when shortlisting and purchasing an ERP, the approaches taken in ERP implementation, and change management techniques to utilize when an organization is undergoing ERP implementation.

At the end of the workshop, the faculties were endowed with practical knowledge that would help you to address real world business problems associated with ERP usage and implementation.

Mr. Nrusinha Das

Profile:

Mr. Nrusinha Das is an employee in Centurion university of technology and management, he is working in the ERP section with several years of experience.

About the FDP:

This will equip the staff and faculties to manage and integrate various activities like teaching, attendance, accounting, course registration and all other administrative works using the software platform or a single platform. This platform will typically run web-based applications that users can access remotely.

Objectives:

To manage day-to-day business activities such as accounting, procurement, project management, risk management and compliance, and supply chain operations.

Output the programme:

Faculties and staff will feel more confident while using the software for different purposes and activities. Various activities like student attendance, Marks upload, Leave application, finance & accounting, management and exam section works will be easily managed by respective staffs. This system enables a clean and efficient way of managing the university's different works by bringing together all departments and connecting people through a single platform. It will save a lot of resources and time and the return on investment will be quicker.

Team Building & Problem Solving

Resource Person

Prof. Siba Kripa Bose

Chief Mentor and Life Coach & Meditative Yoga Teacher

No. of Participants: 47

Venue: Room No. 03, Aryabhata Block

Date: 07-04-2019

The session started by Prof. Siba Kripa Bose giving a short introduction about the workshop and problem solving and Team Building he continues the discussion saying, “Problem Solving Team Building manages resistance to change as the steps encourage involvement, inclusion and rapid progress.” He describes the steps/stages, The Problem Statement which is a simple “How do I ?” question, Idea Generation, Idea Selection, Benefits & Concerns, Critical Concerns raised, Action Planning.

Objective:

- To make breakthrough progress on a seemingly intractable problem by using the power of the Team.
- To be an antidote to unstructured, time-consuming meetings that discuss a problem but seldom arrive at any concrete way forward.
- For the Problem Owner to go away with actions that inform future plans.
- For the Team to feel they have worked together to enrich the thinking behind the solution.

Towards the end of the session there were some fun activities done with the faculties as a practice round for problem solving and team building. The session ended with a summary on the whole workshop

“Soil Health Management using Soil Testing Kit”
REPORT

(3rd to 7th July, 2017)

No. of Participants: 24

DATE AND VENUE: 3rd to 7th July, 2017, Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Paralakhemundi campus.

ABOUT RESOURCE PERSON: Dr. Rahul Adhikary, he is a Doctor of Philosophy and Post graduate in soil science and Agricultural chemistry. He has more than 2 and half years experience as a research fellow in DST, GOI project. He is presently working as an Assistant Professor cum Head Dept. of Soil Science at Centurion University of Technology and Management, Odisha.

ABOUT THE SESSION:

A total of 24 faculty members from M.S. Swaminathan School of Agriculture, Paralakhemundi campus attended the program. The topics like: Introduction to soil health management, Soil sampling and processing, Demonstration of handling soil testing kit, Interpretation of soil nutrient status using soil testing kit and Importance of soil testing in maintaining soil health. The entire interactive lecture sessions were conducted in CUTM board room 2. Overall the FDP was well-structured, informative, interactive, and enriched with knowledge. I owe my gratitude to Dr. Rahul Adhikary for delivering the contents relentlessly and his untiring discussions throughout 5 days of this FDP. I am also thankful to Prof. M. Devender Reddy, Dean, MSSSoA for valuable presence throughout the FDP. I am grateful to Dr. Sagar Maitra, HoD, Dept. of Agronomy for extending all support to conduct this session.

OBJECTIVES:

1. To give a brief introduction to soil health management
2. To teach basics of soil sampling and processing
3. To demonstrate soil testing through soil testing kit
4. To interpret the results obtained

OUTCOME:

After the conduction of this FDP, the faculty members would be proficient enough in soil sampling, soil testing and interpretation. In addition, they also acquired enough knowledge related to soil health and importance of soil testing in crop management.

Comments and suggestions:

- i. This FDP was very beneficial to all the faculty members.

- ii. This type of interactive and participatory FDP in other fields/topics should be arranged at least twice a year to advance and update the knowledge of faculty members.
- iii. Another FDP may be arranged on “Application of smart tools in nutrient management

DATE AND VENUE: 12th September to 16th September 2017, Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Paralakhemundi campus.

ABOUT RESOURCE PERSON: Dr. Atanu Deb, Assistant Professor in Centurion University of Technology and Management, Odisha. He has vast teaching experience in fields of smart agriculture, ICT application and family farming.

ABOUT THE SESSION:

A total of 25 faculty members from M S Swaminathan School of Agriculture, School of Management and School of Engineering, Paralakhemundi and Bhubaneswar campuses attended the program assiduously. The topics like: concept of Information and Communication Technology in agriculture, challenges in using ICT tools, future prospects of ICT, ICT enabled extension approaches, technology transfer, innovative ways to use ICT in the rural domain, role of line departments and KVKs, ICT-mediated agricultural activities. The entire interactive lecture sessions were conducted in CSREM Conference hall followed by the respective practice sessions in seminar hall. Related study materials were prepared and distributed among all participants. Overall the FDP was well-structured, informative, interactive, and enriched with knowledge. I owe my gratitude to Dr. Susant Kumar Pattanayak for delivering the contents relentlessly and his untiring support throughout the 5 days of this FDP. Thanks to Prof. Arunabha Pal and Dr. Rahul Adhikary, Asst. Professor, Deptt. of Soil Science for assisting the participants throughout the practice sessions. Thanks are also due to Prof. Chitrasena Padhy, HoD, Dept. of Agricultural Extension and gratitude to all faculty members of the department of Agricultural Extension for providing necessary facilities and extending all supports to conduct the practice sessions.

OBJECTIVES:

1. To give a brief introductory platform on ICT Application in Agricultural Extension
2. To equip teachers with skills and knowledge those are essential for ICT Application in Agricultural Extension
3. To strengthen knowledge about various ICT tools.
4. Develop teachers with innovative technology in use of ICT tools.

OUTCOME:

After the conduction of this FDP, the faculty members would be able to get ideas of ICT Application in Agricultural Extension related practice courses to the students of

B.Sc.(Ag)/M.Sc(Ag)/MBA programmes comfortably. A Faculty Development Program was organized by Department of Agricultural Extension, M S Swaminathan School of Agriculture, Paralakhemundi from 12th September to 16th September, 2017 on " ICT Application in Agricultural Extension ". This programme was coordinated by Department of Agricultural Extension and was facilitated by Dr. Atanu Deb, Assistant Professor, M S Swaminathan School of Agriculture, Paralakhemundi.

Comments and suggestions:

- i. This FDP was very beneficial to all the faculty members.
- ii. This type of interactive and participatory FDP in other fields/topics should be arranged at least twice a year to advance and update the knowledge of faculty members.
- iii. Another FDP may be arranged with some more thematic areas within the next six months.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Having high-quality security employee training and induction is an important step in effectively running your security services. Training and inducting our security officers helps to provide quality and professional security personnel. Today we will be discussing why it is important that every single security officer/employee you engage or subcontract is first trained and inducted before you deploy them offsite

- Health and safety procedures
- Safety trainings
- Work inspections...

CONCLUSION

I am sure you will agree that your security company, employees, and clients all desire quality service and that having the right security training and induction material is vital in delivering quality security service!
