SPORTS FACILITIES FOR THE LOCAL COMMUNITY

The department of sports at Centurion University organizes various sports programs like cricket, football, volleyball, Kabaddi, fitness competitions, etc. with the local schools and communities. The University recognizes the importance of sports in promoting physical and mental health, as well as empowering individuals and communities. Therefore, CUTM encourages its students and staff members to participate in sports and physical activities on a regular basis to provide them with social and health benefits. It not only has a direct impact on physical fitness, but it also instills healthy lifestyle choices in children and young people, assisting them in remaining active and combating noncommunicable diseases.
