And students visited along with some of their experiences.

1. NIKITA NANDA - 140301ECR030

We started from here at 2:00PM and reached there by 3:00PM. The place was totally new to us "EkamraHatta". The place was full of beauty and when we entered the gate, the children over there signified them as a cause of that beautiness.

They were so talented. It seems like they were born with talents. Some were good in dance, some in singing and some in performing dramas. All of them interacted with us very well. They were so friendly. And after listening to the stories behind their living, I was utterly horrified. But still they were happy. They were happy of their life. They were smiling. Personally, I want to say that the sweet smile on their faces gave me self-satisfaction. It was like, I was lost somewhere with them. And the most important thing, we saw many useful things made up of waste materials. They were so attractive.

The team present over there cooperated and organised the total event very smoothly.

"The Aashayen team, Youth for seva team and the other volunteers helping over there".

Thanks to Sangram sir for making us a part of it.

I can say this much "We can't buy their happiness, by selling our whole life. They hold the most precious happiness in this world".

2. RENU KUMARI - 140301ECR047

We reached there at around 2 PM. We did not have any idea that basically for which work we came here. We have seen many children were playing there and we too joined them and we played many games with them. They were very much interactive and they were talking to us as they know us from before. The children were very creative. They have made many useful things with waste materials by the help of "ASHAYEN" members and those things were very beautiful. They were very skillful, they know dancing, singing, studying and many more.

In starting, the team members introduced us with the organizer and the supporters of that organization named as "ASHAYEN". Then, they started the programs presented by the children of slum areas and that programs were just like "Super se upper ka" type, we enjoyed a lot and at last we all danced together on stage and we wanted some more time to spend there but we had to come back.

Thanks to "ASHAYEN" group for organizing this great event and Sangram Sir to make us part of this great event.

3. TURANGI SUNIL KUMAR - 140301ECR017

31 Jan, observed as National Street Children Day. Celebrated at EkamratHaat - Bhubaneswar. The program was organized by a local NGO "Aashayen" I had been involved myself as a volunteer from our campus.

We reached by 3 PM the NGO volunteers were so happy by seeing our centurion team as we were 40 students. Later we got introduced to the street kids and had our interaction. They were nearly 50 kids. At 4PM, as a part of event the kids had a Quiz competition. We volunteers were helping the kids. The kids actively participated in the quiz, I myself felt odd as I even don't know some answers for the questions, but I wondered by the kids enthusiasm and interest.

Later in the evening the program started. Some govt officials along with Other NGO members as chief guests. The kids interacted and stated the problems facing by them, the guests have promised to sort out the problems. The cultural events like drama, singing, dance were performed by the kids, the program continued till quarter past 9.

I came to know many things about the kids and their problems, I even came to know about their daily routine, how and why some kids get sexually abused, how they struggle to get food, they even explained the kind of things the kids do to earn money. I was sattered by hearing all this things.

The Aashayen team was doing a very great job by helping the kids by involving them in different life skill development activities. I wish their dreams come true and have a blissful life. I also feel proud to be a part of this event and I also registered as volunteer for the Aashayen team to help the kids in different activities.

4. SOUMYA SOURAV BEHERA - 140301ECR012

It was a very good experience with me which I came across yesterday.

Previously I have visited and interacted with the children's of orphanage, blind school but this time I met with the extraordinary children who spent their most of the time in the streets by collecting garbage, cleaning dishes in hotels etc. Some of them are from red light area also.

To make the children aware of the society it's a very good and appreciable initiative taken by the members of "Aashayen" to educate them and train them.

I talked to some of the children and came to know that they want to study but their parents want them to earn money by doing works. It was very painful to hear that the children's were previously provided with "Dendrite" to avoid the hunger.

So if we can do something and make their future bright so that they can be the future of India.

I am very much thankful to Sangram Sir for arranging such kind of visit.

This time some photographs
